

Columbus Consolidated Government Council Meeting Agenda Item

TO:	Mayor and Councilors
AGENDA SUBJECT:	Donation of Supplies – Columbus Police Department
AGENDA SUMMARY:	Approval is requested to accept donations of building materials from The Home Depot for the construction of K-9 Training Aids at no cost to the city.
INITIATED BY:	Columbus Police Department

Recommendation: Approval is requested to accept donations of building materials from The Home Depot for the construction of K-9 Training Aids at no cost to the city.

Background: The Columbus Police Department currently has one K-9 Team consisting of one handler and one dog. This team is trained in drug detection and tracking. Additional training aids are needed to maintain the canine’s ability to detect illegal narcotics. This training will further enhance our ability to remove these illegal narcotics from the streets of our community.

Analysis: The Home Depot has generously offered to donate all building materials needed for the construction of a scent wall and other K-9 training aids for drug detection training. Labor for this construction will be provided in-house at no additional expense.

Financial Considerations: There is no cost to the Consolidated Government of Columbus for this donation.

Legal Considerations: The Consolidated Government of Columbus is eligible to receive this donation.

Recommendation/Action: Approval is requested to accept construction materials from The Home Depot for the construction of K-9 Training Aids.

A RESOLUTION
