

ADVOCACY THROUGH ART

Public Art Initiatives

“We cannot walk alone.
And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall always march ahead.
We cannot turn back.”

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

PUBLIC ART INITIATIVES

Black Lives Matter Mural

Local black and brown artists will design a mural inspired by the Black Lives Matter movement to be installed at 5th Avenue & Talbotton.

Unity Film Event

Screening of The Stories We Can Tell curated by local artists, Sammie Saxon & Tony Pettis.

Outdoor Art Exhibition

We Cannot Walk Alone is a collection of digital artworks expressing artists' experience with racial injustice.

Mobile Art Container

AN OPEN CONVERSATION ON RACISM

AS PART OF THE "WE CAN'T WALK ALONE PROJECT", WE ARE COLLECTING STORIES OF RACISM. IN THE MIDST OF PROTESTS DUE TO SOCIAL AND RACIAL INJUSTICES, SOCIAL MEDIA HAS BECOME GROUND ZERO FOR UNCOMFORTABLE CONVERSATIONS. BY SHARING OUR EXPERIENCES OF RACISM WE CAN INVESTIGATE HOW AND WHY WE, AS A SOCIETY, RESPOND TO BIGOTRY. THIS PROJECT WILL FEATURE A COLLECTION OF VIDEOS, TEXTS, AND POEMS ABOUT EXPERIENCES FROM AROUND THE COUNTRY. PLEASE SHARE BY VIDEO, AUDIO, AND TEXT BY SENDING SUBMISSIONS TO
