Utility Assistance Program

City of Columbus Utility Assistance Program

Program Overview

Families living at or below 80% of the Columbus Metro area median income for a Georgia family, are economically insecure. At times, they must choose which basic needs they will fulfill for their family.

The primary objective of the City of Columbus American Rescue Plan (ARP) Utility Assistance Program is to extend support to vulnerable low-income households by addressing their immediate home energy needs in response to the challenges posed by the continued effects of the COVID-19 pandemic.

This program intends to temporarily alleviate the cost burden lower income households experience with rising utility costs.

Columbus Consolidated Government (CCG) has allocated $1,500,000 to assist low-income households, that pay a higher proportion of household income for utility expenses. This assistance targets the costs of electricity, natural gas, and water to residential dwellings.

(CCG) has partnered with Enrichment Services; and is pleased to develop and administer The City of Columbus American Rescue Plan - Utility Assistance Program.

Funding for this grant program is provided under the American Rescue Plan Act through the U.S. Department of Treasury.
