Roadmap of CDBG Programs

Public Services

Funds were invested in improving public facilities such as parks, community centers, and streets, enhancing the quality of life in many urban neighborhoods.

Housing Rehab

Many communities used CDBG funds to rehabilitate aging and deteriorating housing stock, ensuring safe and affordable housing for low-income families.

Public Facilities

Funds were invested in improving public facilities such as parks, community centers, and streets, enhancing the quality of life in many urban neighborhoods.

Economic Development

The program supported small business development and job creation, helping to stimulate local economies and reduce unemployment rates.

Covid Relief

The program was specifically designed to address issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic and were allocated to help communities respond to and recover from the impacts of the pandemic.

Looking Back at 10 Years

Over the past 10 years, our efforts directly impacted more than 264,779 residents through 430 activities spending approximately, $12,507,786.

These projects contributed to the betterment of low- to moderate-income communities and individuals in Columbus.
