As a resident of the city of Colusa and a mother of two young children, my family frequently utilizes the parks and play grounds and the programs offered during the summer. As a mom who is at a Colusa park almost every day, I experience firsthand the importance of the parks and facilities. I see their strengths and areas for improvement. In 2019 I earned my Bachelor's degree in Sociology from Long Beach State University.

Before becoming a mother, I worked in the public school system for four years. Specifically, I was a data manager at the high school level and principals secretary at the middle school level. More recently →
