

Bio of Horace McHugh,

Horace McHugh; Horace.McHugh@gmail.com; 954 940-1972
(10/16/21)

Horace McHugh's municipal career spans over 29 years in various South-Florida cities, serving as: Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) for the City of Plantation (4yrs); Deputy City Manager for the City of Coral Springs (1yr); Assistant City Manager for the cities of North Miami Beach (1 ½ yrs), Oakland Park (6 ½ yrs) and Miami Gardens (4 ½ yrs); and Assistant to the City Manager in Fort Lauderdale (12 yrs).

He recently served the City of North Miami Beach as Interim City Manager and as Assistant City Manager overseeing the Departments of Building, Community Development (Planning & Zoning, Code Compliance, Business Tax Receipt), Economic Development and the CRA.

Prior to NMB he served as Deputy City Manager of Coral Springs, where he had responsibility for directing the departments of: Budget & Strategic Planning; Public Works & Utilities; Building; Economic Development & CRA; Development Services (Planning, Zoning & Code); and Communications & Marketing.

In addition to experience in directing daily municipal operations, his background includes the startup of several key departments for a newly incorporated city; municipal bond process; infrastructure planning; capital project implementation; and long term & strategic planning.

Horace holds MBA & BBA degrees in Finance from Pace University, NY and is a Credentialed Manager through ICMA's Credentialing Program. He is also a graduate of the ICMA Senior Executive Institute, at University of Virginia's Darden Business School.

His professional affiliations include the Florida City/County Management Association (FCCMA), where he serves as President of the statewide association. He is also an active member of International City/County Management Association (ICMA); Miami-Dade City/County Management Association (MDCCMA) and Broward City/County Management Association (BCCMA).

His civic activities include serving as Treasurer of St. George's College Alumni Association. He previously served as Treasurer of the Greater Caribbean-American Chamber of Commerce; President of Leadership Broward; and Board Member of Broward Partnership for Homeless.