The PGSO's Domestic Violence Intervention Division (DVID), comprised of sworn deputies, SVAs, and civilian administrative aides, is the only dedicated domestic violence unit in the region that serves as a one-stop shop for victims of domestic violence. The DVID, through its SVAs and administrative component, assists through the provision of access to services or assistance-toward safety and freedom from violence. The SVAs serve as liaisons between victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. III) History of Relationship

As a multi-agency, multi-disciplinary survivor resource and support center, the PGCFJC has independently collaborated with most of the partners named herein since its inception in 2016. Many of these organizations were involved in the development and planning of the PGCFJC and forged working relationships during that seven- year process. The PGSO was one of the first organizations that committed resources and moved into the PGCFJC in 2016 with Special Victim Advocates (SVA's) that started implementing the proven model. PGPD, CCSI, and the University of Maryland SAFE Center for Human Trafficking Survivors soon thereafter in 2020 and committed resources to the PGCFJC and has been working together as on-site partners in the PGCFJC serving survivors in a coordinated and collaborative approach and have well- established working relationships.

Further, the PGCFJC has developed productive working alliances with these MOU partners, along with the local municipal police departments named in this MOU, having collaborated with them either formally as on-site partners, and in some instances informally through external community-based programs and initiatives; to include the Prince George's County Domestic Violence Coordinating Council, Prince George's County Domestic Violence Fatality Review Team, the Prince George's County Human Trafficking Task Force, Take Back the Night and Purple Lights Night, held annually in October in recognition of National Domestic Violence Awareness Month.
