Columns, Balustrades, Railings: Vinyl (PVC)

Staff Analysis:Zoning Compliance:

The property is a legal, non-conforming use. The proposed project is seeking to replace the existing front porch turned wood columns with square vinyl and the turned vinyl balustrades with square vinyl, and the turned vinyl front step railing with square vinyl. Zoning Compliance is achieved based upon this application to the HDRB.

Any property within the Historic District Overlay is required to meet the Historic District Guidelines, which are superimposed on the underlying zoning district regulations.

Historic District Guidelines:

Section 3.1: Architectural Character

Section 3.2: Building Types, Forms, & Associated Architectural Styles (Page 3-12 – Folk Victorian)

Section 4.4, Page 4-11: Woodwork: Porches and Associated Features

Section 5.4.2: Porches

Sections 7.1, 7.2, & 7.3: Alternative Materials

Staff Recommendation:

Staff is requesting the HDRB to review the application material submitted by the applicant and determine if the proposed replacements are in keeping with the Guidelines of the Historic District and reflect the character and historic appearance of the neighborhood.

Staff is prepared to assist in the development of a motion, if needed.

The Historic District Review Board makes the final determination on whether or not a Certificate of Appropriateness will be issued for this project and may impose conditions on an approval.

If approved, a Certificate of Appropriateness shall expire of its own limitation six (6) months from the date of issuance if the work authorized thereby is not commenced by the end of such six (6) month period; and further, any such certificate shall also expire and become null and void if such authorized work is suspended or abandoned for a period of six (6) months after being commenced.
