Treasurer Conklin thanked all for the work on the budget. Treasurer Conklin stated it is truly a $4.7 million budget deficit but $2.3 million of our budgeted dollars are carried over from not completed projects or purchases this year. Treasurer Conklin also reminded everyone that we have reserves that will forecast to have 12 months' worth of reserves. He explained reserves are money you put in reserves and if you need something you have something to go back to and a normal reserve is four to five months, and we will have twelve months. Treasurer Conklin also stated we have $2 million worth of projected revenue in the budget, but this is a couple $1 million grants which we appropriated but have not yet received, however if we do not receive the grant money this coming year, we will borrow that from ourselves. Treasurer Conklin pointed out a budget deficit is not something you continually do but we do have enough in our reserve bank to stay aggressive on our street projects. Treasurer Conklin stated at the end of this current Fiscal Year with $7.5 million worth of additional monies in our reserves.

Finance Director Lisa Banovetz commented that the pledge to the Council is to make sure we are transparent all the time and under the new City Budget System, if any change is needed within any department, it will be taken to the Council first. Director Banovetz stated they had the police negotiation mediations on March 27, 2023 and there was no resolution, but we are a little closer and we do already have place holders in the budget for the salaries.
