

CITY OF DACULA, GEORGIA

MITIGATION ACTION PLAN

Geography/History

The City of Dacula (City) is located at 33°59'15"N, 83°53'31"W (33.987598, -83.891926). The City has a total area of 5.399 square miles (13.98 km²), all of which is land.

The City of Dacula began as the Town of Chinquapin Grove. When it was founded, the name was changed due to the fact that no chinquapin trees actually existed in the City. The name Dacula was formed by letters found in Decatur and Atlanta. Those two cities were near Dacula and were already prospering during the time of Dacula's founding.

There was a train station on a CSX line in Dacula, and though it closed in the mid-1950s, the City experienced immense growth. Formerly a small, one-light town in the early 80s, the City of Dacula now has nearly 10 public schools from both the Dacula and Mill Creek clusters of Gwinnett County.

Significant Characteristics

With its 3,850-seat auditorium, Hebron Baptist Church is one of the largest Southern Baptist churches in the Southeast United States.

The City has several beautiful parks suitable for weddings, picnics, and other small outdoor functions.

Little Mulberry Park is a park that encompasses 485 acres of an 890-acre park. It features five miles of trails, including two paved multi-purpose trails and a handicap-accessible trail, and more than two miles of woodland foot trails. The park also offers many picnic pavilions, restrooms, a playground, and an observation terrace.

Dacula is also known for its large Memorial Day parade, as well as its professional and collegiate athletes.

Approved in 2020, Rowen is a new 2,000-acre development bordering Dacula to the east. It is being promoted as Georgia's hub for environmental, agricultural and medical innovation. Gwinnett County has committed to the project as demonstrated by the $125 million Eastern Regional Infrastructure Project that provides sewer upgrades and trail amenities in the area.

Mitigation Actions

Each jurisdiction participating in this Plan is responsible for implementing specific mitigation actions as prescribed in the adopted mitigation action plan. In each mitigation action plan, every proposed action is assigned to a specific local department or agency in order to assign responsibility and accountability and increase the likelihood of subsequent implementation. This approach enables individual jurisdictions to update their unique mitigation strategy as needed without altering the broader focus of the countywide Plan. The separate adoption of locally specific actions also ensures that each jurisdiction is not held responsible for monitoring and implementing the actions of other jurisdictions involved in the planning process. A complete list of countywide mitigation strategies and additional action information is provided in Section 5 of the Gwinnett County Hazard Mitigation Plan.
