

Sec. 24-7. - Disorderly conduct.

- (a) It shall be unlawful and a violation of this section for any person to engage in any conduct declared by the provisions listed in subsection (b) of this section to be disorderly conduct, and any person convicted of engaging in such conduct as hereinafter specified shall be guilty of disorderly conduct and punished as set out hereafter.
- (b) Disorderly conduct shall be defined as follows:
 - (1) Any person who assembles for the purpose of engaging in any fraudulent scheme, device, or trick, to obtain anything of value from any place or from any person in the city, or who shall aid and abet therein.
 - (2) Any person who shall accost or attempt to force themselves upon any person, or who attempts to "pick up" any person.
 - (3) Any person who frequents any place where illegal gaming or gambling takes place or the illegal sale or possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages or narcotics or dangerous drugs is practiced, allowed, or tolerated.
 - (4) Any person who shall by acts of violence interfere with another person's pursuit of such other person's lawful occupation.
 - (5) Any person who shall congregate with one or more people or who places himself in or on any public way or sidewalk so as to halt the free flow of vehicular or pedestrian traffic and who refuses to clear such public way so that traffic can pass unimpeded, when ordered by the city police or other lawful authority.
 - (6) Any person invading the playing area of any athletic contest or exhibition, except participants and officials.
 - (7) Any person attending an athletic contest or exhibition or show, who casts, throws, hurls, or flings any bottle, can, receptacle or any other object which does or could cause injury or damage to persons or property either in the spectator area or elsewhere within the facility where the contest or exhibition is taking place.
 - (8) Any person causing an unreasonably loud, boisterous and unseemly noise or disturbance, unnecessarily and unreasonably annoying or offending the sense of decency or property of the nearby residents.
 - (9) Any person urinating on the streets of the city or of the sidewalks of the city, or in or upon any public property or place accessible to or within the view of the members of the community, except in a flush toilet connected with the city sewerage system or an approved septic tank system or in a sanitary privy, out of public view.
 - (10) Any person acting in a violent, turbulent, boisterous, indecent, or disorderly manner or using profane, vulgar or obscene language in a public place, thereby disturbing the good order, peace, tranquility, and dignity of the city and the inhabitants thereof.
 - (11) Any person shooting a firearm at another person in any public or private place within the city limits without lawful authority or legal jurisdiction.
 - (12) Any person setting a bed, drapes, furniture, or house on fire by smoking or by means of lighted cigarettes or cigar or pipe or materials used to light the same.
 - (13) Any person disturbing or destroying any carved pumpkins or jack-o-lanterns or other holiday decorations that is upon the property of another.
 - (14) Any person expectorating or spitting on the sidewalks of the city or on the floors of any publicly owned building.
 - (15) Any person appearing in any place open to, accessible to, or within the view of the public, not properly clothed or garbed, by which is meant with the genitalia and buttocks of such person not completely covered by a fully opaque garment, or in the case of females, with the breast uncovered.

- (16) Any person standing or loitering upon any sidewalk, street, avenue, alley, or public highway or grounds within the limits of the city or on private property without the express consent of the owner thereof, for the purpose of "thumbing," requesting, asking, or soliciting a ride from the operator of any motor vehicle.
- (c) Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be punished as provided by section 1-11.
- (d) Each violation of a part of this section shall be a separate violation, and any person convicted of violating more than one part thereof shall be guilty of more than one separate offense, and may be punished separately for each offense.
