---

19-000504

Vehicle Theft / Aggravated Assault

818 Shugart Rd

The complainant advised that two male subjects approached him behind the apartments. The complainant advised that the male subjects took his vehicle at gunpoint. Investigators began working on the case based on the complainant's statements. Officers received a call a few days later advising the stolen vehicle was returned to the apartments. Upon further investigation it was discovered the complainant filed a false police report in reference to the theft of the vehicle. It was also discovered the vehicle's VIN had been altered and the complainant, along with others, have been conducting this scheme in multiple jurisdictions. Warrants were issued for the complainant and another subject in reference to this case.

19-000021

Kidnapping

600 Wilkins St

The complainant stated that on the evening of New Year's Eve he was kidnapped at gun point by two Hispanic males. He stated a hood was placed over his head. He was questioned all night about his knowledge of several people and a drug bust that had occurred. He was released the following morning and walked from the area of New Hope to Hamilton St. The complainant ate at Providence before calling 911. The kidnappers also stopped and bought him cigarettes during the incident. The complainant did not arrive for his arranged interview and would not return investigators calls.

19-000687

Vehicle Theft

1501 W Walnut Ave

An employee from Ed Kirby Chevrolet reported the theft of a white 2018 Jeep Grand Cherokee valued at $99,760. The complainant believes that a key may have been taken during a recent burglary at the dealership. The vehicle was entered into GCIC as stolen.

19-000728

Robbery

Meeting St. & Parkside Pl

The complainant reported that unknown persons approached her and by force took her purse from her and ran off. Officers canvassing the area were able to identify a suspect. After investigation the suspect was arrested and charged with robbery.

19-000022

Assault

1522 W Walnut Ave

Officer Scruggs stopped a vehicle that had been called in as a possible DUI. Officer Cook arrived to provide back up for field sobriety. During the stop the passenger, who was highly intoxicated retrieved a handgun from the glove box and was seen by Officer Cook with the weapon in his hand. The subject did not notice Officer Cook standing by the door. Officer Cook drew his weapon and was able to grab the suspect's handgun and take him into custody. Officers tried to question the suspect but due to his intoxication and highly emotional state he could not provide any reason for retrieving the gun.

DALTON POLICE DEPARTMENT
PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSION MEETING
FEBRUARY 26, 2019

19-000085 Entering Auto 543 Callahan Rd.
The complainant reported that someone entered his unlocked vehicle in the morning hours in the parking lot. Video footage of the suspect vehicle was obtained. During investigation of the incident a suspect was identified based on pawn records. It was determined that the same suspects involved in this entering auto were also responsible for several other crimes ranging from entering autos to financial transaction card fraud in Dalton and other jurisdictions. Warrants were issued for the suspects.

19-000125 Auto Theft 2315 Sir Lancelot PL
The caller reported that unknown subjects stole his vehicle from the parking lot of the motel. The vehicle was later located by the complainant.

19-000136 Aggravated Assault 907 Liddell St
Officers responded to the ER in reference to a subject that had a cut on his abdomen. He initially stated that it happened because he fell on a piece of glass in a back yard. As the officers continued to question him and his girlfriend it was learned that her mother had stabbed him. Detective Yarbrough responded to assist. While he was in route Officer Williams stopped the suspect vehicle and was able to take the mother into custody. In an interview with Detective Yarbrough she admitted to the assault. She was transported to the jail and charged.

19-000161 Entering Auto Walnut Sq Blvd
Unknown suspect(s) entered the victim's Honda Accord by prying on the window gasket and then removed items from inside the vehicle. There was a Michael Kors wallet and a pink purse taken along with keys and several other items. Some items believed to have been stolen from this vehicle were located during the investigation of case 19-000085.

19-000170 Vehicle Theft 713 Woodland Cir
The complainant reported that sometime during the last 2 weeks while he was out of town his 1997 tan Ford Contour was taken from in front of his residence. He did advise the keys were left in it so a neighbor could crank it occasionally while he was gone.

19-000191 Burglary 207 April St #3
The complainant reported that sometime overnight someone entered her residence and took a television, Xbox One and approximately 50 DVDs. The complainant named a suspect as being responsible for the theft. She stated that the suspect had stayed at the apartment a few weeks ago and since she left she has been unable to locate the key to the front door.

19-000186 Entering Auto 101 W. Walnut Ave
The complainant reported that his mother Maribel Gonzalez had parked her car for a brief moment at a business during the morning. She was not sure if she locked the car but believes that she had left it unlocked. While the car was parked someone entered the vehicle and took her purse from the front passenger seat. During the investigation it was discovered that the suspects from case 19-000085 used the complainant's debit card that had been stolen from her vehicle. One suspect was arrested and warrants were issued for the other suspect.

19-000334 Battery 808 W. Crawford St
Officers were dispatched to Hamilton Medical Center in reference to an assault that occurred on January 12, 2019. The complainant reported that she traveled to Cleveland, TN with a male subject when the subject began
