I. Policy

It is the policy of the Dalton Police Department to provide its citizens with superior police service while meeting Department objectives and accomplishing the police mission. The Patrol function of any law enforcement agency is the largest and the most important segment. No section contributes more to the public reputation of the Department. All personnel are expected to be thoughtful of their actions to keep negative public opinion to a minimum.

II. Patrol Organization and Responsibilities

- A. The Division Commander for the Patrol Division shall be appointed by the Chief of Police and may hold the rank of Captain or Lieutenant.
 - 1. The Commander is responsible for writing objectives for patrol personnel and will annually review, rewrite, and distribute objectives.
 - 2. The Commander will conduct staff meetings and receive input on operations and problems.
- B. The Division Operations Lieutenant is responsible for managing patrol-related activities as operations commander and assisting subordinate personnel in handling unusual and complex situations
- C. The operations section of the patrol function consists of the following:
 - 1. A, B, and C watches
 - 2. Special Operations Unit
- D. Each watch is under the direct supervision of patrol Lieutenants. Sergeants will assist the Watch Commander by providing leadership and field supervision to subordinates under their command.
