DALTON POLICE DEPARTMENT
PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSION MEETING
MARCH 26, 2019

Summary of Significant Events for February 2019

During the month of February 2019 there no identified crime series in the city. There were two incidents where suspects were identified and arrested after it was discovered they were involved in multiple entering autos. There were five reports of stolen vehicles during the month. There were eight burglaries reported during this time frame. There were three reported aggravated assaults.

19-001391 Agency Assist 1910 Mack St
Detective Simpson was contacted by a Detective from Cherokee County. The reason for the contact was that he had warrants on a subject who was located at this address. The warrants were for attempting to solicit children for sex. The detective also stated that he was currently chatting with the suspect and that the suspect thought he was chatting with a 12 year old girl. The suspect had agreed to pay for the female's cab ride to the house if she came over. Detective Simpson developed an operation's plan and with the help of Detectives Murray and Ensley planned to show up appearing to be a taxi. Once the suspect was identified then he would be taken into custody. When detectives identified themselves the suspect attempted to flee. He resisted arrest and was finally taken into custody.

19-000798 Burglary 2220 Chattanooga Rd, 120
The complainant reported that someone had entered her room through the air-conditioner slot. Missing were several different electronic devices. She named a suspect. The suspect allowed officers to search his room but nothing stolen was located. The office advised that they did not have access to the camera system.

19-000807 Aggravated Assault 310 Northgate Dr; Burger King
A road rage incident happened and that incident then resulted in a physical altercation at the business. The caller then stated that the male subject that was involved pulled a gun on him. The subject then followed the male with the gun as he left in a vehicle. The incident was investigated and the suspect denied having a weapon. The complainant later decided he did not want to pursue charges.

19-000825 Auto Theft 319 N Hamilton St
The complainant stated that his 2012 Ford F-150 was stolen while parked at Conductors. He stated that he was behind on payments but had worked out a plan with the loan company. The vehicle was entered into GCIC. The case is currently under investigation.

19-000895 Entering Auto 410 Roberts St; 9
The complainant reported his vehicle being entered sometime during the overnight hours. The vehicle was left unlocked, which resulted in his Glock 26 with 33 round mag stolen. He was able to provide a serial number so the gun could be entered into GCIC.

19-000983 Entering Auto 412 Harris St
The complainant reported that someone stole $350 out of her vehicle. The vehicle was unlocked and nothing else was taken.

Forgery

815 Shugart Rd.

The complainant reported that he was attempting to sell an iPhone XS Max through Letgo. He stated a subject who used the name "Lamon" contacted him and agreed to purchase the phone for $1,000.00 and wished to meet at the Auto Service entrance at Walmart. The complainant met a black male who gave him what he thought was $1,000 in cash and he gave the male the phone. He stated that a white male was also with the subject purchasing the phone. As the complainant walked to his vehicle he noticed the texture of the bills didn't feel right and noticed each bill had the same serial number and the word "Copy" printed on the bills. He went back to confront "Lamon" and he and the white male were walking at a brisk pace toward Stonebrook Apartments and then he lost sight of them. This incident is similar to two other cases at the same location in January with similar offender descriptions, 19-000035 and 19-000036.

19-001022

Suicide attempt

1116 Willowdale

A welfare check was requested by a girlfriend who advised her boyfriend had called her and advised her he took some medication in an attempt to harm himself. Upon arrival the boyfriend was observed through the window laying unresponsive in the bed. Several attempts were made to awake him by banging on the door. Entry was made and it took a sternum rub to wake the male. EMS arrived and he was ordered by the doctor to be transported to Hamilton Medical Center.

19-001103

Entering Auto

430 Cedar St

The complainant reported her unlocked vehicle was entered overnight. The complainant advised that two wallets and other items were taken during the incident.

19-001109

Entering Auto

1318 Crescent St

The complainant advised her unlocked vehicle was entered overnight. Items taken were two wallets, Social Security card, and one credit card. There are no suspects or witnesses.

19-001132

Theft

1011 N Hamilton St

The complainant called to report her shotgun stolen, but had no serial number or make for the gun. While making the report she named a relative as the suspect. While on scene she made contact with the suspect via Facebook messenger. Once he realized the police were on scene he hung up. The complainant then received a call from her mother stating the suspect had made comments to kill the complainant and anyone else that tried to stop him.

19-001142

Burglary

2008 Sheffield Pl

The complainant reported a burglary at 2008 Sheffield Pl. It occurred between the hours of 1430 and 2100 hours. Entry was made through a rear sliding glass door; however, the complainant was unable to determine if anything was stolen from the home. Multiple items of financial value were left untouched.

19-001144

Entering Auto

304 Pinehill Dr

Officers responded to the area of Pinehill Dr in reference to an entering auto in progress. Several units arrived in the area within a couple of minutes and were able to coordinate a search for the suspect. The suspect was located running behind houses and taken into custody. Further investigation lead to the recovery of stolen items form numerous entering autos in the area. Officers gained cooperation from the suspect and were able to return the property to the owners. He was arrested and charged accordingly. All of the vehicles were unlocked.

PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSION MEETING
MARCH 26, 2019

19-001182

Child Abuse

412 Barbara Ave

The complainant reported that her three year old daughter had bruises on her back and leg. Contact was made with on-call DFCS and she was aware of a long history of involvements with this family. DFCS responded to the Dalton Police Services Center and a safety plan was set in place. The children were removed from both parents' care.

19-001185

Burglary

900 Vernon Ave

Officers responded in reference to a burglary that had just occurred. The complainant stated that the suspect kicked in the front door and came in the apartment holding a large hunting knife. The complainant stated that the suspect was dating his ex-girlfriend. The complainant stated the suspect told him he owed him for what he did, but did not know what he was referring to. The complainant's roommates stated the suspect threatened to stab them, however the complainant did not confirm that. The suspect left the area in a black Hyundai Elantra, possibly with another female.

19-001197

Entering Auto

929 Rachel St

The complainant reported observing three juvenile males in the area that he believed to be breaking into vehicles in the area. Officer Mullinax observed two of the individuals around Edgewood Ave and attempted to get out with the subjects. The subjects fled on foot and Officer Mullinax was able to detain one of the subjects. The other subject was not captured. The suspect was transported to his residence and officers spoke with his father. The suspect stated that the person with him had entered several vehicles but he didn't know if he had taken anything other than the pack of mints and dime the other suspect had given to him. The complainant was unable to identify the suspect as being the individual who had entered the vehicles. The suspect was issued citations for loitering, obstruction and curfew violation and released to his father.

19-001310

Hit And Run, Obstruction

Tibbs Rd And Emery St

Officers responded to a three car crash at the above location. Once on scene it was determined that one subject had fled the area on foot. It was later learned that a female had arrived in the area and he took her car leaving her on foot. Officer Guerrero later attempted to stop him and he refused to stop. He was then later seen pulling into Scenic Valley by Officer Kapur. Officer Kapur arrived on scene as the male driver jumped out of the car and entered an apartment. Officer Kapur tried to follow him but the door was locked. Officer Kapur forced entry, but we could not locate the subject. We assumed he fled out the back and entered another apartment. Later in the evening a vehicle from that address was located on the roadway by Officer Selby. A traffic stop was conducted and the suspect was located inside. He was arrested along with a female.

19-001317

Dead Body

1302 Underwood St

Officers responded to the Underwood Lodge in reference to a person not breathing. On arrival Officers made contact with a male subject who was deceased. During the investigation it was determined that a female was with him. She had sent a message to family that he was not breathing around noon. She had left in the victim's car. The female had left three hours prior to calling the family to let them know of his condition. Det. Edwards was notified in reference to this and came to the scene. The car was recovered in Walker County occupied by three people, none of which were the suspect. Det. Simpson was then contacted to go to Walker County and meet with the Sheriff Department and the three occupants of the vehicle. Further investigation was turned over to CID.
