Proposal to Perform
Subsurface Exploration and Infiltration Testing
Proposed Underground Stormwater Pond
Dalton City Hall
Dalton, Georgia
Geo-Hydro Proposal Number 210622.P0

Dear Mr. Parker:

Geo-Hydro Engineers, Inc. appreciates the opportunity to present this proposal to perform a subsurface exploration and infiltration testing for the above referenced project. Our understanding of the project is based on our review of the geotechnical scope prepared by Mr. Michael DeVuono, P.E., of Arcadis U.S., and our email correspondence with the project team.

PROJECT INFORMATION

We understand that the City of Dalton is evaluating four lots west of City Hall for a possible underground stormwater detention pond. The lots include two buildings, a surface parking lot, and grassed and wooded areas. We understand that the pond will have an infiltration horizon approximately 5 feet below current grades, but the project is in a preliminary phase and a final footprint and elevations have not been determined at this time. The annotated aerial photograph below was provided to us and shows the total parcel property lines and requested test locations.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

- 1) We will contact Georgia 811 for location of underground utilities. This is required by law. Also, we ask that the current property owner provide any available information regarding the location of any underground utilities in the work areas. Geo-Hydro will not be responsible for damage to unmarked underground utilities. Please see the attached Underground Utilities Fact Sheet for more information.
- 2) We will perform infiltration testing at the approximate requested locations shown on the annotated aerial photograph on the previous page. At each test locations, we will perform two percolation tests (eight total tests) in accordance with the procedures prescribed for the Modified Taft Engineering Center Method extending to a depth of 5 feet or the depth of auger refusal, whichever occurs first. The percolation rates will be converted to representative infiltration rates using the Porchet Method. We will report the adjusted infiltration rates in units of inches per hour.
- 3) At each test locations, we will also advance a test boring to a depth of 10 feet or auger refusal, whichever occurs first. In wooded lots, the test borings will be advanced with hand equipment including dynamic cone penetrometer testing (ASTM STP-399) at select depths. In grassed or paved lots, the borings will be performed with a drill rig and will include standard penetration testing in accordance with ASTM D1586.
- 4) Upon completion of the testing, we will backfill the test holes with soil cuttings and patch the boreholes with asphalt patch. We will make efforts to reduce disturbance to the site. However, our work may result in rutting of the ground surface or some staining of the surrounding asphalt pavement. If cosmetic repairs are necessary, we will hire a subcontractor. Cosmetic repair work will be charged at our cost plus 15 percent.
- 5) We will prepare a brief engineering report outlining the results of the infiltration testing. We will also provide evaluations and recommendations concerning groundwater elevations and their effect on the proposed construction, anticipated excavation conditions, and other aspects of the project.

SCHEDULE

After receiving Notice-to-Proceed (NTP), we will schedule the field work. Infiltration testing should begin within 1 to 2 weeks of NTP and be completed in one day, barring inclement weather. A complete report will be provided within 1 week of completion of the testing.

COST INFORMATION

Based on the Scope of Services outlined above, we will charge a lump sum fee of $4,550. In the event that additional work is required beyond the outlined scope of services, we will notify you prior to commencing with any additional work. A fee for additional work will be negotiated.

We are pleased to submit this proposal and look forward to working with you on this project. If this proposal is acceptable, we ask that you give us formal Notice-to-Proceed. If you have any questions concerning this proposal or any of our services, please call us.

Fact Sheet Underground Utilities

Geo-Hydro's work often includes drilling below the ground surface to evaluate subsurface materials. One of our biggest concerns is that we may accidentally encounter underground utilities which may create a safety hazard for our personnel and others or result in a loss of service. Location of underground utilities prior to our work is important to all parties. Unfortunately, location of underground utilities is a difficult task, and accurate location of underground utilities is often not possible.

Geo-Hydro is required by Georgia law to contact the Utilities Protection Center (UPC) prior to drilling. The UPC requires at least 72 hours prior notification. The UPC contacts member utilities, and the member utilities dispatch utility locators. Normally the utility locators will not locate underground utilities on private property, and will only locate utilities from the main service line to the property owner's meter. It is not uncommon for utility locators to improperly locate underground utilities for a variety of reasons.

Geo-Hydro requires that the property owner provide clearly marked locations on the ground of any underground utilities in the work area. If necessary, Geo-Hydro can refer the owner to companies that provide underground utility location services. Alternatively, Geo-Hydro can hire the utility location company and pass this cost through to our client.

Private underground utility location companies do not guarantee that they have located all underground utilities or that underground utilities have been accurately located. In fact, some underground utilities (e.g., irrigation lines, non-metallic lines, etc.) simply cannot be located using non-destructive techniques.

Geo-Hydro will make reasonable efforts to avoid damaging underground utilities that are clearly marked in the field. Due to the uncertainties of locating underground utilities, Geo-Hydro cannot be responsible for damage to unmarked underground utilities. Since Geo-Hydro's work is being performed for the benefit of its client, the client must accept the risk that Geo-Hydro's work could result in damage to underground utilities. As such, it is ordinarily the responsibility of Geo-Hydro's client to accept the responsibility for repairing damage to unmarked underground utilities unless that responsibility has clearly been transferred to another party.
