2.1 Statement of No Tolerance

Harassment based on any protected characteristic in the workplace is prohibited by federal, state, and local law, whether committed by supervisory or non-supervisory employees, and will not be tolerated. Retaliation or intimidation directed toward an individual who complains about harassment in good faith or who participates in an investigation into a harassment allegation is also prohibited by law. Such misconduct will not be tolerated by the City under any circumstances and is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. The City will endeavor to take prompt remedial measures to immediately take appropriate action to address harassment allegations.

2.4 Definition of Behavior Constituting Sexual Harassment

The City prohibits harassment of employees and other covered persons based on an individual's sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender), regardless of the harasser's sex or gender.

Sexual harassment means any harassment based on someone's sex or gender. It includes harassment that is not sexual in nature (for example, offensive remarks about an individual's sex or gender), as well as any unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or any other conduct of a sexual nature, when any of the following is true:

2.4.1 Submission to the advance, request, or conduct is either explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of employment, including, but not limited to, as it relates to wages, advancement, evaluation, assigned duties, shift assignment, and career development.

2.4.2 Submission to or rejection of the advance, request, or conduct is used as a basis for employment decisions.

2.4.3 Such advances, requests, or conduct have the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with work performance by creating a hostile, intimidating, or offensive employment environment that may be considered offensive to another employee, including, but not limited to:

The City's Anti-Harassment Policy applies equally to harassment based on other protected characteristics, such as race, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, citizenship, genetic information, military service, or any other characteristic protected under federal, state, or local law.

Such harassment often takes a similar form to sexual harassment and includes harassment that is (a) verbal (e.g., epithets, slurs, derogatory comments, or jokes, (b) physical (e.g., assault or inappropriate contact), and (c) visual (e.g., derogatory drawings or gestures). These examples are illustrative only and not exhaustive. No form of harassment will be tolerated.

Any employee who believes they have been subjected to or witnessed conduct that violates this Anti-Harassment Policy must immediately report the matter to one of the following in order of preference: the City Attorney; the Human Resource Coordinator; the City Administrator; or to a Department Head. Any Supervisor, who becomes aware directly or indirectly, of a potential harassment issue must immediately contact the City Attorney, the Human Resource Coordinator, or the City Administrator, who will initiate an investigation. A Supervisor's failure to timely report potential harassment issue may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. The reporting obligation is absolute and not discretionary.

If the City Administrator is the offending party, the exempt employee should immediately notify the president of the City Commission, who will assign a qualified investigator(s) to perform an investigation.

2.7 Complaint Investigation Process

Upon becoming aware of potentially unlawful harassment, the City Attorney and the City Administrator, or a designee, will assign a qualified investigator(s) to perform an investigation. The person or persons tasked with investigating the complaint will make a thorough and impartial investigation of the complaint, which will include the following:

- Interview of Complaining Party
- Interview of Offending Party
- Interview of Other Parties as necessary

All employees must cooperate with any such investigation. If the person or persons tasked with investigating the complaint finds through investigation that the complaint has grounds, the City Administrator will decide the appropriate disciplinary action for the offending party, keeping in mind the serious nature of this type of offense and will detail the findings of the investigation and outcome in a written notice, which will include the investigator's report. The City will maintain confidentiality in the investigative process to the extent possible without jeopardizing the effectiveness of the investigation and in compliance with open records laws.

2.8 Process If the City Administrator is the Offending Party

If the City Administrator is the offending party, the appropriate qualified investigator will turn his/her findings over to the President of the City Commission. It will be the City Commission's responsibility to take appropriate actions.

If at any time criminal charges may become applicable, the appropriate law enforcement authority will take the lead in the investigation.
