

Darlene Olson and Joe Billman stated that it is too much work for them to keep up on. They are almost in their 80's and the upkeep is getting too much for them. They want to downsize so they do not have to worry about that extra land.