

Neveah has been taking care of bleu and Roxie for since she first opened up her business. She always lets me know how the dogs are with her, takes pictures of them. Keeps me updated on how they are if they are in daycare. She takes time to focus on their behavior and what needs attention. She's very compassionate and has patience with them. She's very nurturing! They absolutely love her!