

GROUP LIVING FACILITY

Group Living-the residential occupancy by a group of people who do not meet the definition of a family are found in Section 39.02.009*. The group living use does not apply to the Group Care Facility and Group Home uses found in Section 39.03.005. Group Living uses include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

- Group shelters;
- Unhoused persons shelters;
- Supportive housing; and
- Transitional housing.

Group living uses shall be allowed by Special Use Permit.

As part of the special use permit request, the applicant shall submit the following additional information:

- Information regarding the proposed group living facility operation, which includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the following:
  - A complete statement of the types of services to be provided, including a client case management plan as well as the provision of “wrap around” services;
  - Consent to a background investigation of the owner/operator of the facility;
  - A list of required licenses and/or certificates, if any;
  - A list of agencies expected to provide services at the facility;
  - The applicant’s history of residency, employment, and business ownership for five years prior to the date of the application;
  - A copy of the facility’s house rules and regulations;
  - A copy of the facility’s on-site security plan;
  - A copy of the facility’s on-site emergency management plan, to include contingencies for fire, tornado, and other natural disaster;
  - Any additional information deemed necessary by Development Services, the Planning and Zoning Commission, and/or the City Commissioner.

No Group Living use may be located within 300 feet of another Group Living use, measured by lot line to lot line, unless such location is otherwise reviewed and approved as a Special Use.

If located within 150 feet of a single family residential zoning district, including overlay districts and/or planned unit developments, all outdoor activity shall be screened from public view and from the view of adjacent properties.

Lighting shall be sufficient to provide illumination and clear visibility to all outdoor areas, with minimal shadows or light leaving the property. Lighting shall be stationary, directed away from adjacent properties and public rights-of-way, and of intensity compatible/comparable with the neighborhood.

Group living facilities shall comply with all applicable local, state and federal requirements.

Group living facilities shall comply with all applicable Uniform Building and Fire Codes, including maximum occupancy restrictions.

GROUP LIVING FACILITY

Group facility shall mean a type of facility that shelters multiple people of the same gender who are unrelated. In a women's facility, this could also include a single mother with children. Group facilities are supervised at all hours that the residents are present.

Supportive housing - these include, but are not limited to, a combination of subsidized permanent housing, intensive case management, medical and mental health care, substance abuse treatment, employment services, and benefits advocacy.

Transient resident means one who temporarily resides for generally less than 30 days or seasonally for less than three months during any 12-month period.

Transitional housing is generally described as a type of supportive housing used to facilitate the movement of people experiencing homelessness into permanent housing and independent living.

Unhoused person shall mean an individual who, or family which, lacks a fixed, regular and/or adequate nighttime residence.

Unhoused facility shall mean emergency housing with minimal supportive services for unhoused persons that is intended for occupancy of three months or less in a given year by an unhoused person.
