HISTORIC INTERPRETATION AND INFORMATION

Days of '76 Rodeo

The Days of '76 Rodeo and Parade is a significant historic event that is a major part of the history of Deadwood and helps to define Deadwood's western character. 2022 was the 100th anniversary of this award-winning rodeo and celebration. Its historic parade recaptures the history of the community every year.

Deadwood History, Inc.

Deadwood History, Inc. is the parent organization which manages and promotes five properties within Deadwood housing various collections relating to Deadwood's history. These facilities include the Days of '76 Museum, Adams Museum, Historic Adams House, the Brothel Deadwood, and the Homestake Adams Research & Cultural Center. This year once again, at the request of Deadwood History, funding was appropriately allocated to these facilities while their total amount remained the same.

Days of '76 Museum

The Days of '76 Museum contains a unique collection of horse-drawn vehicles and artifacts associated with Deadwood and Black Hills history. With the construction of the museum, the collection now has proper security and climate control, and the proper care and interpretation of the exhibits are in place.

Adams Museum

The Historic Preservation Commission allocates funds each year for the continued support of the Adams Memorial Museum. These funds are used for preservation and display of the Adams Museum's collections and other expenses associated with the care of the varied collections of artifacts and objects. Funds also allow for further marketing Deadwood history and the programming associated with Deadwood History, Inc

Adams House Museum

Deadwood's Adams House has been open as a house museum since July 2000. The funds in this line item are used for the administrative and program costs associated with the operation of the museum. These expenses include salaries and personnel services for a curator and docents, as well as supplies, and marketing. Funds are also used for preservation and display of the Adams House's collections and other expenses associated with the care and use of a varied collection of artifacts and objects

Historical Re-enactments (Deadwood Alive)

The visitor experience in Deadwood is enhanced by the presentation of historical information utilizing a variety of re-enactments. Deadwood Alive provides an opportunity for visitors, school children and residents to have a greater appreciation for the history of Deadwood. Presentations include both street performances and performances of "The Trial of Jack McCall".

Fassbender Photographic Collection

The collection of photographs, negatives, slides and film footage by Josef and George Fassbender are getting the attention they deserve. This massive collection - over 800,000 images - is being cataloged and preserved by the Cities of Spearfish, Deadwood, and Lead. Each City has once again allocated funds towards the goals to preserve, conserve, and make available for public education the beautiful and fascinating images which captured over a century of Black Hills history.

Century Award

The Deadwood Historic Preservation Commission's Century Awards program began in the early 1990s to recognize and honor historic commercial structures in Deadwood which are a century old. Two awards are created per nominated structure with one being presented to the owner(s) of the nominated structure and the other is installed in the Century Room located in Deadwood City Hall. To date, the Historic Preservation Commission has presented 76 Century Awards.
