

175 Sherman Street (C.1939) - There was a Phillips 66 service station operating at this location as early as 1939. It was later occupied by Sinclair Oil.

This 1948 map shows the Phillips 66 Service Station, at right, across from the B&M Railroad Freight Station (#96) before that building was moved to its current location. Courtesy City of Deadwood Archives.

Personals

Coyote bounty claims were filed at the county auditor's office yesterday by C. C. Erickson, Lead, and Melvin Good, Whitewood.

G. H. Hemminger, proprietor of the Mumford Motor company, in another column of this issue of The Pioneer-Times, announces the reopening of the "Phillips 66" gasoline station on the corner of Lee and Sherman streets in Deadwood this morning, under the management of that company. Mr. Hemminger will also conduct the business of the fine garage and repair shop which adjoins the station on Lee street.

A large audience, composed of the adult personnel and others interested in the Girl Scout movement, greeted Mrs. Careta Younglove, Sioux City, Ia., national Girl Scout itinerant director, when she spoke at the Girl Scout rooms in the Elks building last evening. Her talk was along the lines of a school of instruction in Girl Scout activities and was described as very interesting and enjoyable. Mrs. Younglove will speak again at 9 o'clock this morning.

The U. S. civil service commission