

City of Deadwood
PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Western Legacy Foundation is partnering with NAJA Shriners of Deadwood, South Dakota for a two-day rodeo event in Deadwood, South Dakota May 29-30, 2022.

Whereas, Back When They Bucked a Western Legacy Foundation (WLF) production presented by Brick Constructors, Inc., designed to raise funds to support the WLF and its efforts that administer youth scholarships and grant programs to benefit communities the region and organizations that support the agriculture industry.

Whereas, NAJA Shrine is a fraternal organization that has been part of western South Dakota for over 125 years. NAJA Shriners support and provide financial resources to over 750 local children to obtain high quality medical care regardless of a family's ability to pay.

Whereas, This two-day event will begin Sunday, May 29th with the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) Breakaway Roping. Leading off the afternoon of rodeo action will be a South Dakota High School Rodeo Showcase and PRCA Xtreme Saddle Bronc Match. All proceeds from day one will benefit the Western Legacy Foundation.

Whereas, Day two, Monday, May 30th, will feature PRCA Steer Wrestling in the morning, with South Dakota High School Showcase followed by the PRCA Bareback Riding Shootout. All proceeds from day two will benefit the NAJA Shriners of Deadwood

Now, Therefore, I, David R. Ruth Jr., Mayor of the City of Deadwood, do hereby proclaim May 29 and May 30, 2022 as Western Legacy Foundation and NAJA Shriners days in Deadwood, South Dakota.

David R. Ruth Jr., Mayor