UNFINISHED BUSINESS

2. Review DMC 15.04 Code Update

This update is recommended by FEMA. The Planning Commission supported the changes. The ordinance will be sent to the City Attorney for review.

MOTION: Chris Hladick moved, Alice Ruby seconded the motion to recommend this ordinance to City Council.

VOTE: Approved by voice vote.

NEW BUSINESS

3. Landfill Fee Recommendations

Fee schedule is reasonable, costs to ship out are expensive. Noted that fees will apply to everyone. Recommendation to track revenue for later evaluation of fee schedule.

MOTION: Alice Ruby moved, Gregg Marxmiller seconded the motion to recommend the electronic drop fee schedule as presented by the Friends of the Landfill Committee to Council.

VOTE: Approved by voice vote.

4. Review Trapping Regulations

Setting traps in city limits next to trails and play areas is a public safety issue. State has the authority to regulate trapping.

The committee is looking at several avenues for this issue:

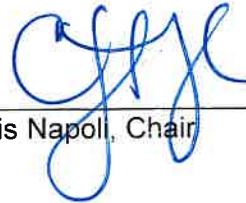

- Work with the Alaska Trappers Association, identify trails.
- Forward proposal to the State of Alaska, Board of Game for local regulation.
- Citizen Committee. Conflict resolution, trappers and citizens affected.
- City Manager to contact City Attorney to determine if City has authority for a local ordinance.
