Introduction to Land Use Administration focuses on the principal strategy for implementing comprehensive plans.

Course topics include:

- Zoning, subdivision, and land-use codes and how they are linked to comprehensive plans
- Typical contents of land-use, zoning, and subdivision codes
- Procedures and issues governing changes to the zoning map
- Issues involved in the day-to-day administration of land-use codes

This session qualifies for credit toward the Certificate in Local Government and the Certificate for Planning Education.
