

DRIPPING SPRINGS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE – 2021 BOARD OF DIRECTORS SLATE

TREASURER CANDIDATE (PICK ONE):

Glenn Wash is a Financial Center Manager with Broadway Bank in Dripping Springs. Glenn has been involved with the Dripping Springs Chamber for six years and regularly attends functions such as monthly luncheons, Coffee Connector and ribbon cuttings. Glenn is the current President of the Dripping Springs Rotary Club having also served as Treasurer and Foundation Chair. Glenn is a former board member for the Lakeway Chamber of Commerce and has served as treasurer for other organizations. He enjoys representing a business who fully supports his commitment to community service.

AT-LARGE CANDIDATES (PICK TWO):

Martin Garza is employed by Chamber members American Water (Territory Manager) and Truly Texas Grown Wine Cellars (Director of Technologies). Martin also holds current leadership roles with Project Connect, Knights of Columbus and DSISD Council of PTAs, and is a member of the Founders Day Commission. Martin attends Chamber functions as his schedule allows and his extensive community involvement includes: various DSISD PTAs; DSISD Long Range Facility Planning & Bond Steering Committees; the city's Planning & Zoning Commission; HEB's Community Challenge with the Mayor's Health & Fitness Council; and various ministries at St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church.

Al Gonzalez is a Senior VP/Partner with JTL Wealth Partners. Al is fairly new to the area but has been an enthusiastic regular at Chamber events since he arrived. Al serves as a Dripping Springs Chamber Ambassador and is always on hand to welcome and support other Chamber members. Al brings energy and expertise from his past relevant experience with the Austin Chamber and the Fort Worth Hispanic Chamber. Al is a member of the Boston University Alumni Council's Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

John Park is the owner of Belterra Tae Kwon Do and attends Chamber events whenever his schedule allows. A business owner for 30 years, John has successfully run 12 martial arts studios and understands the challenges and intricacies of owning a business. John's extensive Tae Kwon Do experience includes his role as Head Coach, U.S. Naval Academy; Coach, West Point; Coach, NYU; Head Coach, Rutgers University; and Grand Master/Advisor, The University of Texas. A Chamber member since 2019, John is a member of his church and is involved in teen ministry.

Trey Powers (Incumbent) is a Mortgage Loan Officer with City Bank Mortgage. A Chamber investor since 2016, he is a graduate of Leadership Dripping Springs – Class 2. Trey has been held leadership roles with Chamber members Project Connect and Hometown Missions as well as being a founding member and board member with numerous other non-profit organizations in Dripping Springs. Trey assists in leading the Chamber's Coffee Connector when needed. He is enthusiastic about his commitment to local businesses and is running for his second term on the Chamber board.

Denise Schroeder is a Development Account Executive with Corridor Title. Denise's passion and commitment are evident in her role as the current Chamber Membership Committee Co-Chair, teaching Chamber 101 and attending events to support local businesses. She is also a member of the Chamber's Economic Development Committee. A graduate of Leadership Dripping Springs – Class 4, Denise is an active member in the community currently serving as a board member for the Dripping Springs Education Foundation. Denise is a past President for the DSHS Track/Cross Country Booster clubs and has been involved with PTA at various DSISD campuses.