

DIVISION 3. - SPECIAL EVENTS

Sec. 6.02.071. - Permit required.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for a person to conduct a special event without obtaining a permit from the city.
- (b) It shall be unlawful for a person with a permit to conduct a special event to do so in a manner that conflicts with this division or any terms of the permit.
- (c) It shall be unlawful for a person to allow a special event to take place on their property if they are or should have been aware that no permit has been issued.

Sec. 6.02.072. - Licenses.

- (a) A vendor, sponsor, exhibitor, or entertainer who participates in a special event is not required to obtain a permit, but must be granted a license by the city and the permit holder.
- (b) Licenses shall be obtained from the city, and upon approval by the permit holder, a license may be conferred to a vendor, sponsor, exhibitor, or entertainer.
- (c) It shall be unlawful for a person to sell or distribute goods, food, or drink at a special event without first obtaining a license.

Sec. 6.02.073. - Grounds for denial.

- (a) The city may refuse to grant a permit if the:
 - (1) Location for the proposed special event is within the territory of another special event and logistically would conflict with another special event in terms of crowd control, traffic, parking and public safety;
 - (2) Applicant has failed to provide the information requested by the city (or provides false information);
 - (3) Applicant has failed to comply with the insurance or other requirements to obtain a permit; or
 - (4) Applicant has been convicted of violating this division within the past 12 months.
- (b) An applicant may appeal an administrative denial to the city council by requesting, in writing, that the city council consider the application.
- (c) The appeal must be filed within ten business days following the denial. If the city council does not act on the petition, it is deemed to have been denied by operation of law.

Sec. 6.02.074. - Other provisions applicable.

Except for division 2 and section 6.02.007(a) of this article, all other provisions of this division apply.

Sec. 6.02.075. - Outdoor amplified music.

Notwithstanding any provisions of this code to the contrary, the city administrator is authorized to permit outdoor amplified music at a special event between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Permits for outdoor amplified music at special events may only be issued by the city council following written notice to neighbors within 200 feet of the event site and a public hearing.
