

Dundee Tree Board

BEAUTIFICATION AWARD

Nomination Form

DO YOU KNOW A PROPERTY WITH AWESOME CURB APPEAL?

Dundee's Beautification program recognizes our communities' residents and businesses who make Dundee a more beautiful place to live by creating and maintaining beautiful landscaping which expresses a balance between the design, layout, color and eco-friendliness. To include projects that show civic pride by updating, restoring or beautifying buildings with improvements such as complementary additions, decks, paint schemes, shutters or planter boxes.

WHO CAN ENTER

The Beautification Award is open to any home or business in Dundee. Properties must comply with the Town's Code of Ordinances. Home or business owners may nominate themselves or another property they consider beautiful.

Nominations made on behalf of another must be formally accepted by the nominee. By self-nominating or by accepting a nomination, you grant the Town of Dundee the right to publicly use your name, address and photographs of the property.

JUDGING & DEADLINES

The Community Beautification Award program is administered by Dundee's Tree Board. Following review of Nominations at each bi-monthly board meeting, the Board will evaluate properties and determine the winners.

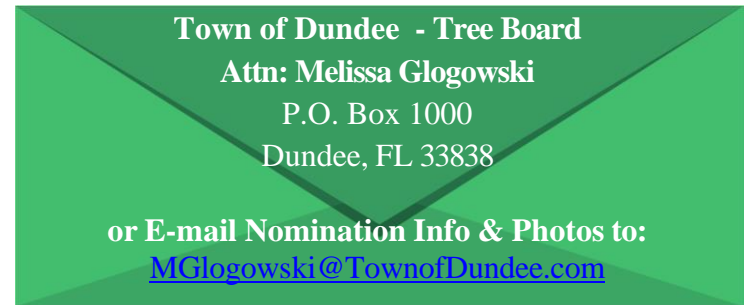

WINNING PROPERTIES

Beautification Award winners will be announced following the board meeting. A Beautification Award sign will be displayed at winning property, along with a recognition at the following Town Commission meeting and on social media.
