Section 4. Section 5-31 (“Animal services department manager”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-31. Animal Services ~~department~~ division manager.

(a) The County Mayor, pursuant to the County's Charter, shall employ a department division manager to administer and enforce the provisions of this article.

(b) The manager of the Animal services department division shall have operational responsibility for overseeing and supervising all day-to-day activities of the division. ~~carrying out the duties prescribed in this article. The manager shall be the chief animal services officer and supervisor of the animal services facility. He may employ assistants and animal services officers to assist in the administration and enforcement of this article. He shall provide for the proper training of all personnel in order that they may competently and humanely carry out their duties and shall be charged with overseeing and supervising all day-to-day activities, including ensuring the humane capture, handling, restraint, care, feeding, housing and disposition of all animals taken into custody as directed by this article.~~

(c) Pursuant to law, the department division manager and animal services officers may enter upon public ~~property~~ and private property, except residential buildings, to administer and enforce the provisions of this article.

(d) The department division manager and animal services officers shall investigate formal complaints of alleged violations of this article and shall issue citations or warning notices requiring that violations cease or be corrected. The department division manager or his /her designee shall endeavor to report back to the person filing the complaint within forty-eight (48) hours regarding the outcome of the investigation and shall record the effort to make such report.

(e) ~~Only~~ Formal complaints shall be investigated. ~~provided, however, that~~ An officer who observes a potentially life-threatening situation violation may take any remedial action the officer deems necessary, including issuing citations.

(1) To initiate an animal services investigation, an oral or written statement of complaint must be provided to the animal services division setting forth the nature of the complaint, the date and time of the act, a description of the animal and the name of the owner of the animal, if known by any person who reports an alleged violation of this ordinance.

(ef) The department division manager and animal services officers may ~~catch~~ capture, seize or pick up:

- (1) Any animal at large;
- (2) Any domestic animal constituting a nuisance;
- (3) Any dangerous or potentially dangerous dog animal not in compliance with the written notification of their classification;
- (4) Any dog animal being considered for dangerous or potentially dangerous animal classification for which impoundment is recommended by the animal services classification committee;
- (5) Any female dog or cat in heat, not properly confined by the owner or keeper ~~of such dog or cat~~;
- (6) Any neglected, abused, cruelly treated, sick or injured animal or animal at risk of injury or death;
- (7) Any animal for the purpose of quarantine or rabies testing as ordered by the state department of health;
- (8) Any animal deemed to be abandoned; and
- (9) Any animal released to the county by a veterinarian or a law enforcement official, ~~;~~ and
- ~~(10) Any wildlife hybrid for which the owner does not have a proper permit.~~

(fg) The ~~department~~ division manager and animal services officers may impound any animal ~~caught~~ captured, seized or picked up pursuant to this article. However, the ~~department~~ division manager or animal services officers shall make a reasonable effort to determine who owns an animal prior to impoundment impounding any animal and, if the owner is identified, shall return the animal to the owner without impoundment. If the animal is returned to the owner without impoundment, the animal services officer shall issue a warning or a citation for the applicable violation ~~if any, of this article.~~

(gh) ~~Reserved.~~ The division manager may waive fees or citations for hardship or extenuating circumstances.

(h) ~~The department manager shall schedule a minimum of one (1) officer with another officer assigned as backup to assist as needed, to be on call for quick response for after-hour emergencies seven (7) days a week, including holidays.~~

Section 5. Section 5-32 (“Classification of dangerous and potentially dangerous dogs; confinement and quarantine of animals”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-32. Classification of dogs as dangerous or potentially dangerous; and potentially dangerous animals; confinement and quarantine of animals; exemption; appeals; unlawful acts.

(a) Upon receipt of a sworn affidavit, the department manager or designee shall investigate reported incidents involving animals that may be dangerous. If the department manager determines that an animal should possibly be classified as dangerous, he shall immediately refer the completed investigation to the animal services classification committee. The animal services division shall investigate incidents involving any dog that may be dangerous or potentially dangerous and shall, if possible, interview the owner and require a sworn affidavit from any person, including any animal control officer or enforcement officer, desiring to have a dog classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous. An animal that is subject to a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog investigation will be impounded at animal services pending the outcome of the investigation and resolution of any hearings related to the dangerous or potentially dangerous dog classification. Alternative impoundment locations will only be considered for extenuating circumstances. No dog that is the subject of a dangerous dog investigation may be relocated or ownership transferred pending the outcome of an investigation or any hearings related to the determination of a dangerous dog or potentially dangerous classification.

(b) By resolution, the Board of County Commissioners will appoint an animal services classification committee and delineate its duties and responsibilities.

(c) The division manager shall make an initial determination as to whether there is sufficient cause to classify the dog as dangerous or potentially dangerous. The division manager shall classify any dog as a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog in the event he/she determines that the dog meets the requirements for dangerous or potentially dangerous dog as specified in section 5-29, Orange County Code. A dog shall not be classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous if the threat, injury, or damage was sustained by a person who, at the time, was unlawfully on the property, or while lawfully on the property, tormented, abused or assaulted the animal or its owner or a family member or a guest of the owner. No dog may be classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous if the dog was protecting or defending a human being within the immediate vicinity of the dog from an unjustified attack or assault. The division manager shall provide written notice to the owner or keeper of such animal by registered mail, certified hand delivery, or service in conformance with the provisions of Florida State Statute Chapter 48 relating to service of process. The written notice shall include the basis for declaring the dog dangerous or potentially dangerous, a description of the dog, and the responsibility of the owner or keeper for maintenance of the dog. If the owner decides to appeal the initial determination of dangerous or potentially dangerous, they may request a hearing before the animal services classification committee to show cause why such dog should not be declared dangerous or potentially dangerous. The request for a hearing must be filed, in writing, with the division manager within seven (7) working days after receipt of written notice of the division manager's determination or action. The written hearing request must briefly state the grounds therefore and list the names and addresses of any witnesses the owner intends to call at the hearing. If the division manager receives a timely written request for a hearing regarding a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog classification, he/she shall immediately refer the request, completed investigation, and initial determination to the classification committee. The classification committee shall schedule a hearing to be held not more than twenty-one (21) working days and no sooner than five (5) working days after the division manager's receipt of the request from the owner.

(d) If the classification committee upholds the division manager's determination that a dog is dangerous or potentially dangerous, the division manager shall send a written notice of such classification, by registered mail or certified hand delivery, to the owner of the animal classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous. If the classification committee upholds the division manager's determination that the dog is dangerous or potentially dangerous, or if the classification committee is unable to meet the time frames set forth in this section, or is unable to make a decision, the owner may file a written request with the clerk of the court for a de novo evidentiary hearing in the county court, pursuant to Florida Statutes, Section 767.12, to appeal the classification within ten (10) business days after receipt of the classification committee's determination of dangerous or potentially dangerous dog classification. The owner must confine the dog in accordance with Section 5-32 (e) as defined pending a resolution of the appeal.

(e) Within fourteen (14) calendar days after a dog has been classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous, the owner of the dog must obtain a certificate of registration and dangerous or potentially dangerous dog identification tag for the dog from the animal services division. The dog shall wear the identification tag at all times. The certificate of registration shall be renewed annually. Certificates of registration shall only be issued to persons who are at least eighteen (18) years of age and who present to the animal services division sufficient evidence of:

(1) A current certificate of rabies vaccination for the dog. The current rabies vaccination tag shall be displayed on the dog at all times.

(2) An approved enclosure to confine a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog and the posting of the premises with a clearly visible warning sign at all entry points that informs both children and adults of the presence of a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog on the property.

(3) Permanent identification of the dog, such as a tattoo on the inside thigh or electronic implantation.

(4) Landlord's written acknowledgment that a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog will be housed on property owned by landlord.

(5) Completion of the County's responsible pet ownership class.

~~(c) When an animal has been classified as dangerous by the animal services classification committee, the department manager shall send a written notice of such classification, by registered mail or certified hand delivery, to the owner of the animal classified as dangerous. An animal shall not be classified as dangerous if the threat, injury or damage was sustained by a person who, at the time, was unlawfully on the property, or while lawfully on the property, was tormenting, abusing or assaulting the animal or its owner~~

~~(d) All animals classified by the animal services classification committee as dangerous or potentially dangerous shall be permanently surgically sterilized in timely fashion unless otherwise provided for as set forth hereinafter.~~

~~(e) The owner may appeal a animal's dangerous or potentially dangerous classification to the county court pursuant to section 767.12, Florida Statutes. The owner must confine the animal in a securely fenced or enclosed area pending resolution of the appeal.~~

(f) An dog animal classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous must be permanently ~~surgically~~ sterilized within fourteen (14) calendar days following such classification by the division manager, animal services classification committee, or in the event of a timely appeal of such classification, within fourteen (14) calendar days following effective affirmation of the dangerous or potentially dangerous dog classification by the classification committee or within fourteen (14) calendar days of the classification as a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog being upheld by a county court-county court of the committee's classification.

~~(g) Within fourteen (14) days after an animal has been classified as dangerous, the owner of the animal must obtain a certificate of registration for the animal from the animal services department. The certificate of registration shall be renewed annually. Certificates of registration shall only be issued to persons who are at least eighteen (18) years of age and who present to the animal services department sufficient evidence of:~~

~~(1) A current certificate of rabies vaccination for a dog or cat.~~

~~(2) A proper enclosure to confine a dangerous animal and the posting of the premises with a clearly visible warning sign at all entry points that informs both children and adults of the presence of a dangerous animal on the property.~~

~~(3) Permanent identification of the animal, such as a tattoo on the inside thigh or electronic implantation.~~

(g) No dog impounded pursuant to a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog investigation or classification shall be released to its owner or keeper until all requirements in Section 5-32 (e) and (f) are met.

(h) The owner shall ~~immediately~~ notify the animal services department division within twenty four (24) hours when a dog animal that has been classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous:

- (1) Is loose or unconfined;
- (2) Has bitten a human being or attacked another animal;
- (3) Is sold, or given away, or dies; or
- (4) Is moved to another address.

Prior to a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog animal being sold or given away, the owner shall provide the name, address and telephone number of the new owner to the animal services department division. The new owner must comply with all of the requirements of this article and sections 767.10 through 767.15, Florida Statutes, even if the dog animal is moved from one local jurisdiction to another within the state. An animal control authority must be notified by the owner of a dog animal classified as dangerous or potentially dangerous that the dog animal is in its jurisdiction.

(i) It is a violation for the owner of a dangerous dog animal to permit the dog animal to be outside an approved proper enclosure unless the dog animal is muzzled and restrained by a substantial chain or leash, not to exceed four (4) feet in length, and under the control of a competent adult. The muzzle shall be made in a manner that will not cause injury to the dog animal or interfere with its vision or respiration, but shall prevent it from biting any person or animal. When being transported, such dogs animals shall be safely and securely restrained within a vehicle.

~~(j) — Hunting dogs are exempt from the provisions of this article when engaged in any legal hunt or training procedure. Dogs engaged in training or exhibiting in legal sports such as obedience trials, conformation shows, field trials, hunting/retrieving trials, and herding trials are exempt from the provisions of this article when engaged in any legal procedures. However, such dogs at all other times in all other respects shall be subject to this article. Dogs that have been classified as dangerous shall not be used for hunting purposes.~~

(j) This section does not apply to dogs animals used by law enforcement officials for law enforcement work.

~~(k) It is a violation of this ordinance for the owner of a potentially dangerous dog to allow the potentially dangerous dog to be off leash when not kept inside the owner's residence or within a securely fenced area. It is a violation for the owner of a potentially dangerous dog to allow the dog to be left alone and unsupervised outside the owner's residence. When being transported, such dogs shall be safely and securely restrained within a vehicle, using an approved tether system.~~

~~(l) Owners of previously declared dangerous or potentially dangerous dogs shall have sixty (60) calendar days from the adoption of this ordinance to comply with all requirements for the registration of a dangerous or potentially dangerous dog as stated in Section 5-21~~

(d) Failure to comply within sixty (60) days will result in the issuance of a Category I violation, pursuant to Section 5-50. In addition, the dangerous or potentially dangerous dog shall be impounded and held for ten (10) calendar days after the owner is given written notification under section 5-32, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 5-32. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the dog during any appeal procedure.

(m) The victim of any dog bite or attack may appeal the decision of the Division or the Classification Committee if the dog is not declared dangerous.

~~(l) — Pursuant to section 767.13, Florida Statutes, if a dog or other type of animal that has previously been declared dangerous under this article attacks or bites a person or domestic animal without provocation, the owner of the dog, upon conviction, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082 or section 775.083, Florida Statutes. In addition, the dangerous dog or other type of animal shall be confiscated by the animal services department, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time, or impounded and held for ten (10) business days after the owner is given written notification under section 767.12, Florida Statutes, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 767.12, Florida Statutes. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the animal during any appeal procedure.~~

~~(m) — Pursuant to section 767.13, Florida Statutes, if a dog or other type of animal that has been previously declared dangerous under this article aggressively attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any human, the owner of the dog, upon conviction, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082, section 775.083 or of section 775.084, Florida Statutes. In addition, the dog or other type of animal shall be immediately confiscated by the animal services department, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time or held for ten (10) business days after the owner is given written notification under section 767.12, Florida Statutes, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 767.12, Florida Statutes. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and such other fees as~~ may be required to humanely and safely keep the animal during any appeal procedure.

~~(n) — Pursuant to section 767.13, Florida Statutes, if a dog or other type of animal that has not been declared dangerous under this article attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any human, the dog or other type of animal shall be immediately confiscated by the animal services department, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time or held for ten (10) business days after the owner has been given written notification under section 767.12, Florida Statutes, and thereafter shall be destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 767.12, Florida Statutes. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and any other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the animal during any appeal procedure. In addition if the owner of the animal had prior knowledge of the animal's dangerous propensities, yet demonstrated a reckless disregard for such propensities under the circumstances, the owner of the animal is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082 or section 775.083, Florida Statutes.~~

~~(n) If any animal dog is not declared dangerous or potentially dangerous or if the classification determined by the animal services classification committee division manager is not upheld in further appeal procedures, the dog animal will be released to the custody of the owner. In such cases, the county shall be liable for costs of impoundment of the animal from the date of impoundment. In such event, the owner shall not be liable for costs of impoundment of the dog and the quarantine fees.~~

~~(o) The division manager may issue notice of propensity letters to owners of dogs, subsequent to an initial bite or documented aggressive behavior toward a person or domestic animal.~~

~~(p) — The manager of the animal services department may issue warning letters to owners of animals meeting the criteria of the definition of potentially dangerous.~~

~~(q) — The county rabies control program shall be carried out pursuant to Chapter 64D-3, Florida Administrative Code and the following provisions:~~

~~(1) — When a dog or cat has bitten or is believed to have bitten a human being or another animal, or is suspected of carrying rabies, the dog or cat shall be quarantined for rabies observation for a~~ reasonable period of time, as determined by the department division manager, but in no case less than ten (10) days. The owner/keeper of such dog or cat shall relinquish possession of the dog or cat for the purpose of quarantine. Refusal to surrender any animal believed to have inflicted a bite on a person upon lawful demand shall be in violation of this article. At the discretion of the department division manager or designee, any such dog or cat without a current rabies vaccination may be kept in quarantine at the owner's expense in a county shelter or at an approved holding facility of a local veterinarian or an approved boarding kennel. It is a violation for the owner/keeper of an unprovoked animal willfully or negligently to allow or permit such animal to bite a human being.

(2) — The state department of health and rehabilitative services county public health unit director/administrator or the state health officer may make an exception and approve confinement of a dog or cat having a current rabies vaccination administered by a licensed veterinarian at the owner's home or at another acceptable location. If the animal services department division manager determines, at any time during the quarantine period, that the owner/keeper of the dog or cat has failed to sufficiently confine the dog or cat, the owner shall relinquish possession of the dog or cat to the animal services department division. The dog or cat will then be confined in the custody of the animal services department division or at an approved holding facility of a local veterinarian for the remainder of the quarantine period at the owner's expense.

(3) — Dogs and cats or other animals under quarantine shall not be released or removed from the place of quarantine unless permission is obtained from the county health unit director or the state department of health and rehabilitative services county public health unit director/administrator or the state health officer.

(4) — Bites of guinea pigs, hamsters, ferrets, lagomorphs (rabbits and hares), livestock, squirrels, gerbils, chipmunks, rats, mice and other rodents shall be evaluated on an individual basis at the discretion of the state department of health and rehabilitative services county public health unit director for a determination as to the need for laboratory examination.

(5) — Any free-roaming wild mammal that has bitten or exposed a human to rabies shall be disposed of immediately in a manner that the head of the animal can be submitted to one of the laboratories of the state department of health and rehabilitative services for examination for rabies. When a free-roaming wild mammal which is on a list of endangered animal species is involved, the state game and fresh water fish commission shall be notified and given the opportunity to obtain the specimen and other relevant information.

~~(6) — Any dog or cat with a current rabies vaccination that is bitten or exposed by a known rabid animal shall be revaccinated immediately by a licensed veterinarian and quarantined for ninety (90) days. The state health director or his designee may permit such animal to be quarantined at home, the animal services department division, or another approved facility. Such animal shall be on a leash when taken outdoors.~~

~~(7) — Any dog or cat without a current rabies vaccination that is bitten by or exposed to a known rabid animal shall be disposed of or, if the owner so desires, placed under rabies quarantine for six (6) months at the owner's expense in a place approved by the state department of health and rehabilitative services county public health unit director/administrator or the state health officer. Such animals shall be given a rabies vaccination upon entering quarantine and shall be revaccinated one (1) month prior to release from quarantine.~~

~~(8) — Any animal held under quarantine must be claimed by the owner within three (3) working days following the last day of quarantine unless prior arrangements have been made or the animal shall be considered abandoned and disposed of as the animal services department division deems appropriate.~~

~~(9) — The owner of any dog or cat held under quarantine must provide proof of vaccination against rabies or have the dog or cat vaccinated against rabies before the dog or cat will be released from quarantine. The owner's failure to have the dog or cat vaccinated against rabies shall be a violation of this article.~~

Section 6. Section 5-32.1 is hereby created to read as follows:

Sec. 5-32.1. Attack or bite by dangerous dog; penalties; confiscation; destruction.

(a) If a dog that has previously been declared dangerous under this article attacks or bites a person or domestic animal without provocation, the owner of the dog, upon conviction, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082 or section 775.083, Florida Statutes. In addition, the dangerous dog shall be confiscated by the animal services division, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time, or impounded and held for ten (10) calendar days after the owner is given written notification under section 5-32, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 5-32. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the dog during any appeal procedure.

(b) Pursuant to section 767.13, Florida Statutes, if a dog that has been previously declared dangerous under this article aggressively attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any person or domestic animal, the owner of the dog, upon conviction, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082, section 775.083 or section 775.084, Florida Statutes. In addition, the dog shall be immediately confiscated by the animal services division, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time or held for ten (10) calendar days after the owner is given written notification under section 5-32, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 5-32. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and such other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the dog during any appeal procedure.

(c) Pursuant to section 767.13, Florida Statutes, if a dog that has not been declared dangerous under this article attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any human, the dog shall be immediately confiscated by the animal services division, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time or held for ten (10) calendar days after the owner has been given written notification under section 5-32, and thereafter shall be destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 5-32. The owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and any other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the dog during any appeal procedure. In addition if the owner of the dog had prior knowledge of the dog's dangerous propensities, yet demonstrated a reckless disregard for such propensities under the circumstances, the owner of the dog is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082 or section 775.083, Florida Statutes.

Section 7. Section 5-33 (“Animals at large prohibited; self-help provisions”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-33. Animals at-large prohibited; self-help provisions.

(1) No domestic animal owner or person having charge, care, custody or control of any domestic animal shall permit, ~~either willfully or through failure to exercise due care and control,~~ any domestic animal to run at large, upon any public property, or off the premises of the owner.

(2) An officer finding a domestic animal at-large may issue a warning or, ~~at his discretion,~~ a citation for such violation. ~~or, alternatively, if~~ If the owner cannot be identified and located with reasonable effort, ~~or on a third or subsequent violation,~~ such animal may be seized and impounded.

(3) No domestic animal at large shall be permitted to cause injury, or threat of injury, to any person, or cause ~~any~~ property damage ~~to a person other than the animal's owner.~~

(4) The owner or keeper of a female dog or cat in heat (estrus) shall confine such dog or cat so as to make it inaccessible to any male dog or cat except for controlled and intentional breeding purposes.

(5) It shall be a violation of this article for the owner or keeper of a dog or cat to tie, chain or otherwise tether such animal in such a manner that it has access to public property or the property of another without the consent of the property owner.

(6) Any domestic animal transported in any open vehicle shall either be within a cage, crate or pen, which is well ventilated and secured within the body of the vehicle, or restrained by one (1) tether, affixed to the center of the vehicle and attached to the collar or harness of the animal to prevent the animal from escaping or causing injury to itself or any person. The tether shall be short enough to prevent the animal's head from reaching the sides or back of the vehicle. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to prohibit the transportation of horses, cattle, sheep, poultry or other agricultural livestock in trailers or other vehicles ~~designated~~ designed and constructed for such purposes.

(1) When a domestic animal is at large ~~on private property, the property owner or tenant~~ a person may seize such animal in a humane manner if the owner of the animal is unknown to ~~the property owner or tenant~~ person and the owner of the animal is not identified by tags, tattoos or any other form of identification. Any person, who finds a stray domestic animal, where the owner is unknown, shall relinquish custody to the animal services division or file a found animal report with the animal services division within two (2) calendar days after finding the animal. ~~Where such seizure is made, the property owner or tenant shall deliver the animal to the animal services department division or a private humane society or a similar organization unless the owner or keeper~~ If the person desires to maintain the seized animal as their own, in which case, he/she shall maintain such animal for the time set forth in subsection (2) hereinafter.

~~(2) Any person who finds a stray domestic animal or exotic pet shall either attempt to locate the owner or relinquish custody of the animal to the animal services department, a private humane society or a similar organization within two (2) business days after finding the animal. unless the finder desires to maintain the animal as his own. Any person delivering an animal to the animal services department division or a private humane society or similar organization shall do so at his own risk and must sign a delivery document at the point of delivery stating that the person making the delivery is doing so in accordance with this article. The delivery document shall be retained at the point of delivery and shall further state the date, time and location where the animal was found and a description of the animal. Any person who intends to keep a found domestic animal shall keep the animal for a thirty (30) consecutive days period, and if no owner is found, the finder shall be conclusively presumed to be the owner of such animal.~~

~~(3) If the ownership of a found animal is in dispute, a person claiming previous ownership of the found animal must provide the finder with proof of ownership in order to successfully reclaim the animal. Such proof may include documentation of prior veterinary records of such animal and/or identifying photographs.~~

~~(4) Any person who seizes an animal pursuant to this section shall exercise utmost care to treat the animal humanely and to avoid inflicting any cruelty, injury, sickness, hunger or other ailment or affliction upon the animal during both seizure and delivery of the animal. Any person unable to comply with this section shall not seize or deliver any animal.~~

Section 8. Section 5-34 (“Impoundment of animals; compulsory sterilization”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-34. Impoundment of animals; compulsory sterilization.

(a) ~~The board of county commissioners~~The County may purchase, construct, lease, operate, and maintain county shelters to retain:

(b) ~~The department division manager~~ may retain the services of a licensed veterinarian or utilize the animal services division ~~department~~ spay/neuter clinic veterinarian to spay or neuter any impounded fertile dog or cat, or to treat any sick or injured animal retained in a county shelter. When the owner or keeper of such animal is identified, such owner or keeper shall be liable for payment of the veterinary expenses or reimbursement of the county's expenses in treating and caring for the animal. Animal services ~~department~~ division staff may administer medication and veterinary care as prescribed by a veterinarian. The county, its employees and agents, shall not be liable for any act or omission in rendering such care.

(c) No animal impounded pursuant to this article shall be released to its owner or keeper until:

(1) The owner of the impounded dog, cat, or ferret, which is not currently vaccinated against rabies, will be issued a citation for failure notice to obtain a rabies vaccination ~~and tag from a licensed veterinarian of the owner's choice, within a specified time frame~~;

(2) The owner or keeper of an impounded animal pays all applicable fees due;

(3) The owner or keeper of an impounded animal pays any expenses incurred by the county for veterinary treatment;

(4) ~~The owner or keeper of an impounded animal executes a sworn statement of ownership or responsibility;~~

~~(5) If a dangerous animal is impounded, The county court enters final judgment or issues an order releasing the animal pending final judgment, or the impoundment exceeds ten (10) business days and no appeal was made to the county court;~~

~~(6) When a animal being considered by the animal services classification committee for possible classification is declared as not dangerous, or, if declared as dangerous The owner complies with the requirements of the written notification of classification; and~~

~~(7) The department division manager may waive fees or citations for hardship or extenuating circumstances.~~

~~(d) An owned fertile dog or cat impounded by animal services may be spayed or neutered by the animal services division spay/neuter clinic, in accordance with the provision of this subsection and prior to the release of the dog or cat. Any owned fertile dog or cat impounded a second or successive time shall be spayed or neutered by the animal services department division spay/neuter clinic, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) below and prior to release of the dog or cat, unless the department division manager or designee determines otherwise in accordance with subsection (2) below:~~

~~(1) An initial citation for Category II violations, as identified in section 5-50, may be waived by the division manager if, prior to release, spay or neuter procedures are completed.~~

~~(12) Upon second impoundment of an owned dog or cat, If ownership of the dog or cat can be determined, written notification of intent to sterilize the animal shall be given to the owner or keeper of this animal. The cost of the spay or neuter shall be charged to the owner upon redemption prior to release of the animal to the owner, but shall be deducted from the impound/redemption fees otherwise required by resolution.~~

~~(23) Any owner of an impounded animal subject to mandatory spay/neuter may petition in writing for a hearing to be conducted by the department division manager or his designee. Such petition must be made by the owner within three (3) working days of the department division's issuance of a notice of impoundment. The hearing must be held within four (4) working days of receipt of such petition. After the hearing, the department division manager or designee shall require the animal to be spayed or neutered unless the~~ department division manager or designee has determined that good cause exists for not requiring that the animal be spayed or neutered.

(e) An initial citation for Category II violations, as identified in Section 5-50, may be waived by the division manager, pending completion of either spay or neuter surgery of the animal, within seven (7) working days of the initial notice of violation.

Section 9. Section 5-35 (“Seizure of animals on court order; disposition of impounded animals”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-35. Seizure of animals on court order; disposition Disposition of impounded animals.

~~(a) — When a county court adjudges an animal to constitute a nuisance under this article or any other law, the department division manager or an animal services officer may seize the animal, and transfer custody of it to a private humane society or a similar organization or otherwise place the animal for adoption if the animal is healthy. ~~(4) Establish fees for certificates of registration for dangerous animals, providing the fees do not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00).~~

~~(5) Establish fees for the disposal of dead animals.~~

~~(6) Establish fees to be charged to owners of animals that are seized by the animal services department for violations of this article and returned to their owners without impoundment.~~

(eb) All fees collected shall be deposited in the county's general revenue fund. All expenses of administering this article shall be paid from the general fund.

Section 14. Section 5-40 (“Advertisement of dogs or cats for sale or free”) is amended to read as follows:

~~Sec. 5-40. Advertisement of dogs or cats for sale or free. Commercial Kennel and Pet Dealer Registration. Any individual who advertises by any means, including but not limited to yard signs, newspapers, and magazines, dogs and cats four (4) months of age or older for sale or for free must include the date of the current rabies vaccination for each animal advertised. If the animal is less than four (4) months of age, then the expiration date of the current rabies vaccination for the female parent of such animal must be included in each pet advertisement. It shall be unlawful for a commercial kennel or pet dealer within the County to fail to register said kennel or pet dealer with the animal services division.~~

(a) Registration for commercial kennels and pet dealers shall be issued for each fiscal year beginning October first and ending September thirtieth upon a payment of the proper fee. A partial year registration fee of one-half the annual rate established by the board of county commissioners may be charged for any commercial kennel business operation or pet dealer in its initial year of business when commencing its operation on or after April first of said initial year.

Noncommercial kennels shall be exempt from the registration requirements of this article; provided, it shall be unlawful for the owner or operator of any noncommercial kennel to allow said kennel to become a nuisance or to emit such offensive odors or noises as to disrupt the comfort, peace, quiet or repose of any person residing in the vicinity of said kennel.

(b) Every person owning and operating a commercial kennel or pet dealer within the County shall properly feed and care for all animals in their custody. The premises of said kennel or pet dealer shall be periodically inspected during reasonable business hours by an animal services officer who shall issue a notice of violation if any kennel or pet dealer is found in violation of any requirement of this article. Said premises shall be reinspected within three working days after issuance of said notice of violation.

The failure to correct said violation after notice shall be unlawful and the animal services officer may take any or all of the following actions:

- (1) Seek a court order;
- (2) Revoke the registration;
- (3) File a complaint with the State Attorney's Office.

(c) Every person owning and operating a commercial kennel or pet dealer within the County shall comply with the following sections:

(1) Housing facilities for animals shall be structurally sound and shall be maintained in good repair, to protect the animals from injury, to contain, and to restrict the entrance of other animals.

(2) Any bedding utilized shall be clean and dry. All animal rooms, cages, kennels, shipping containers, and runs shall be of sufficient size to provide adequate and proper accommodations and protection from the weather for the animals kept within.

(3) Separation of animals by Species. Animals of different species may not be confined or displayed in the same cage. All animals, which are natural enemies, temperamentally unsuited, or otherwise incompatible, shall not be quartered together or so near each other as to cause injury, fear or torment.

(4) Ventilation and Lighting. All areas in which animals are confined shall have adequate illumination and ventilation. The area shall be illuminated during the daylight hours but not directly into cages.

(d) Every person owning and operating a commercial kennel or pet dealer within the County shall comply with the following requirements for standard of care of the animals in their custody:

(1) Whenever an animal is left unattended at a commercial kennel or pet dealer, the name and telephone number of the responsible person shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the front of the property, visible from outside the facility.

(2) Disease or illness. Any animal, which exhibits symptoms of disease or illness, shall be separated to the greatest extent possible from other healthy animals. No animal which is known to have, or may reasonably be suspected of having, a disease contagious or communicable to humans, may be exposed to or offered for sale to the public.

(3) Drinking Water. Fresh water shall be available to all animals and replaced whenever necessary during each day.

(4) Feeding. All animals requiring the daily intake of food shall be fed at least once every 24-hour period. The type of food provided shall be appropriate for each particular species and shall be of sufficient nutrition for the health and well being of the species.

(5) Sanitation. All areas of confinement, display and sales and storage areas shall be maintained in a healthful and sanitary condition.

(6) Treatment. All animals exhibiting symptoms of illness or disease shall be treated by a licensed veterinarian.

Section 15. Section 5-41 (“Trapping; exposing poison”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-41. Trapping; exposing poison.

(a) The animal services ~~department~~ division may set box (live-cage) traps only for animals which have allegedly bitten a person or another animal, for nuisance animals that pose a health risk or cause property damage or for the purposes of humane rescue in the interest of the animal itself, as determined by the ~~department~~ division manager of the animal services ~~division~~ department. A trap may not be set on weekends, county holidays, and during such hours when the animal services ~~department~~ division staff is unavailable to retrieve or release a captured animal. Appropriate signage notifying neighbors that a trap is in use must be conspicuously posted at all times. A trap shall be checked a minimum of once every eight (8) hours by an animal services officer or the citizen requesting the trap. The responsible person attending the trap shall immediately notify the animal services ~~department~~ division when an animal is captured.

(b) No animal services ~~department~~ division traps will be provided to the general public for the purpose of trapping animals except to assist animal services in trapping as provided in subsection (a).

a. Hunting of game birds and animals in compliance with state laws regulating such activities which shall be limited to rural areas only. Non-targeted animals shall be released immediately at the site of capture.

b. Nuisance wildlife by such persons holding current permits to engage in such activity, issued by the ~~state game and fresh water fish commission~~ Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission, and who are registered with the animal services division ~~department~~. Such trapping must be in strict compliance with the provisions of the state permit. Non-targeted animals shall be released immediately at the site of capture. ~~Nothing shall prohibit employees of the state game and fresh water fish commission from such activities when carrying out the duties of their employment.~~

(d) Any person who traps animals, without animal services ~~department~~ division authority or who is not in compliance with the provisions of this article or not in strict compliance with ~~state game and fresh water fish commission~~ Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission permits, will be in violation of this section. Animal services will confiscate any trap used in violation of this section.

(e) No person or entity shall leave or deposit any poisonous or injurious substance of any kind in any common street, alley, lane or thoroughfare or any yard or enclosure which would injure or kill an animal.

(1) Exceptions:

a. Moles: Except when contracting the services of a professional, licensed exterminator, only commercial mechanical devices intended for that purpose shall be used.

b. Rats and mice: Only products, substances or poisons which are completely enclosed in a tamper-resistant or tamper-proof bait station accessible only to rats and mice.

Section 16. Section 5-42 (“Nuisance animals; offenses and procedures”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-42. Nuisance animals; ~~offenses and procedures.~~

(a) It shall be a violation of this article for the owner or keeper of any domestic animal to permit an animal to constitute a nuisance by permitting or allowing such animal to engage in any of the following specifically prohibited behaviors:

- (1) Habitual or repeated bothersome noises;
- (2) Chasing vehicles, livestock, domestic animals, humans or running at large;
- (3) Acting in an aggressive manner;
- (4) Damaging or destroying public or private property;
- (5) Causing a serious annoyance so as to interfere with the reasonable use and enjoyment of property;
- (6) Being an unwelcome guest on private or public property;
- (7) Emitting offensive odors, either from the animal or upon property due to the animal.

(b) Failure by an owner or keeper to observe any of the following mandatory duties shall constitute a violation of this article:

- (1) The owner or keeper of every domestic animal shall be held responsible for every behavior of such domestic animal under the provisions of this article;

(2) The owner or keeper of every animal shall be responsible for the removal of any excreta deposited by an animal on public ways, recreation areas, or private property;

(3) The owner or keeper of an animal shall maintain that animal and the property upon which it is located so as to prevent offensive odors which disturb the comfort, peace or repose of any person ~~who residing~~ resides in the vicinity.

(c) Any nuisance complaint may be investigated by animal services. However, before a citation may be issued, the animal services officer must have personal knowledge of the nuisance or at least two (2) affidavits from different parties residing in close proximity to the alleged nuisance must be received. One affidavit may be sufficient to warrant investigation and issue a citation where there is only one (1) party in close proximity to the alleged nuisance. ~~To initiate an animal services investigation, a signed statement of complaint on a form provided by the animal services department setting forth the nature of the complaint, the date and time of the act, a description of the animal and the owner of the animal, if known, shall be required to be submitted to the animal services department by any person who reports an alleged nuisance animal.~~

Section 17. Section 5-43 (“Neglect of animals prohibited”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-43. Neglect of animals prohibited.

(a) ~~Neglect means to give little attention or respect or to leave unattended.~~ Neglect of animals is a violation of this article and occurs if the owner or keeper of an animal commits any one of the following prohibited acts or omissions:

(1) Fails to provide food, water, shelter, adequate ventilation, protection from the elements, or other care generally considered to be normal, usual and accepted for an animal’s health and well-being; ~~Neglects the responsibility of providing an animal with good and wholesome food, water, and shelter;~~

(2) Confines any animal without providing wholesome exercise ~~and change of air;~~

(3) Abandons any animal and neglects the responsibility to provide for the animal;

(4) ~~Engages or attempts to engage in sexual intercourse or~~

~~any type of sexual contact with any animal; or~~

(54) Leaves a dog, cat, or other animal unattended in a parked vehicle with inadequate or no ventilation.

(b) Any person who unnecessarily overloads, overdrives, torments or deprives of necessary sustenance or shelter, or carries in or upon any vehicle or otherwise, any animal in a neglectful or contemptuous manner, is in violation of this article.

~~(c) Any person who unnecessarily overloads, overdrives, torments or deprives of necessary sustenance or shelter, or carries in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, any animal in a neglectful or contemptuous manner is in violation of this article.~~

(dc) The operator of a motor vehicle who strikes a domestic animal shall stop at once, render such assistance as may be possible, and immediately report such injury or death to the animal's owner if such can be found. In the event the owner cannot be found, the operator shall at once report the incident to the animal services ~~department~~ division or the appropriate local law enforcement agency. Behavior in violation of this subsection constitutes "neglect" as defined hereinabove.

Section 18. Section 5-44 ("Spay/neuter program") is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-44. Spay/neuter program.

(a) A low-cost public spay/neuter clinic, at which any Orange County resident may have dogs and cats sterilized by a licensed veterinarian, has been established and is located at the animal services facility.

(b) Rabies vaccinations ~~may~~ will be provided, for a fee, to those animals being sterilized, pursuant to Section 5-37. Animals presented at the clinic for sterilization which are unvaccinated against rabies shall be inoculated at that time. Future rabies vaccinations must be procured from private veterinary clinics.

(c) Fees for impoundment shall be forgiven to the amount paid for the spay/neuter clinic fee paid for animals impounded for the first time.

(d) ~~Those~~ County residents who meet the one hundred (100) percent federal poverty level standards, or receive Medicaid benefits, may have their animals spayed or neutered without charge.

~~(e) Fees for the clinic will be established by resolution to this article.~~

~~(fe) Residents seeking service from the clinic shall sign a statement holding the clinic harmless and shall retrieve their animal on the date specified by the clinic. Failure to do so shall result in an additional charge for board. The animal may be retained overnight on the day of surgery with no additional charge.~~

Section 19. Section 5-45 (“Animal services department programs”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-45. Animal services division department programs.

(a) The animal services department division will conduct an ongoing pet education program for adults and children as to the responsibilities of pet ownership, the need to sterilize animals, the services available from the animal services department division and the laws relating to animals in the county.

(b) The animal services department division will conduct an ongoing adoption program at the animal services facility. Fees and procedures will be established by resolution.

Section 20. Section 5-46 (“Wildlife hybrids prohibitions”) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5-46. ~~Wildlife hybrids prohibitions.~~ Cruelty to Animals.

~~(a) It is unlawful to own, harbor, keep, transport, sell, or breed any wildlife hybrid of the family canis or felis, or breed any wildlife with a dog or cat, unless the owner or keeper or breeder is in possession of an appropriate permit issued by an agency of the state authorizing such activity. Pursuant to Section 828.12, Florida Statutes, as may be amended, cruelty to animals is a criminal offense. The division shall investigate reported incidents involving cruelty to animals or support investigations by other enforcement agencies when so requested and refer cases where probable cause exists to the state attorney's office for criminal prosecution.~~

~~(b) Any animal alive and within the territory of the county on October 1, 1995, shall not be subject to the prohibition contained in subsection (a) above. However, the keeping or maintenance of any such animal shall be subject to such regulations as the board of county commissioners may enact from time to time by resolution.~~

The following acts or omissions shall constitute cruelty to animals under this article:

(1) Unnecessarily overloading, overdriving, tormenting, depriving of necessary sustenance, shelter, or medical care, or unnecessarily mutilating, or killing any animal or causing the same to be done, or carrying in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner.

(2) Intentionally committing an act to any animal which results in the cruel death, or excessive or repeated infliction of unnecessary pain or suffering, or causes the same to be done.

(3) Poisoning a dog, cat, ferret, or other pet animal.

(c) All wildlife hybrids not exempted from the application of this section by virtue of being the subject of a state permit described in subsection (a) or by the terms of subsection (b) are contraband. Such wildlife hybrids shall be delivered to an individual possessing an appropriate state permit, the animal services department division, a humane society or be humanely euthanized. Pursuant to Section 828.13, Florida Statutes, as may be amended, confining an animal without sufficient food, water or exercise, or abandonment of an animal is a criminal offense. The division shall investigate reported incidents involving such action or support investigations by other law enforcement agencies when so requested and refer cases where probable cause exists to the state attorney's office for criminal prosecution.

(d) The following acts or omissions shall constitute improper confinement or abandonment:

(1) Impounding or confining an animal without a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food and water.

(2) Keeping an animal in any enclosure without wholesome exercise and change of air.

(3) Abandoning to die any animal that is maimed, sick, infirm, or diseased.

(4) Abandoning an animal to suffer injury, malnutrition or illness without veterinary care.

(e) A veterinarian rendering services is exempt from the provisions of this section.

(f) Pursuant to section 828.122, Florida Statutes, as may be amended, fighting or baiting animals is a criminal offense. The division shall report incidents involving such action to the appropriate law enforcement agency and support investigations when so requested and refer cases where probable cause exists to the state attorney's office for criminal prosecution.

(g) The following acts or omissions shall constitute improper fighting or baiting under this article:

(1) Baiting, breeding, training, transporting, selling, owning, possessing, or using any wild or domestic animal for the purpose of animal fighting or baiting.

(2) Owning, possessing, or selling equipment for use in animal fighting or baiting;

(3) Owning, leasing, managing, operating, or having control of any property kept or used for animal fighting or baiting;

(4) Promoting, staging, advertising, or charging any admission fee to a fight or baiting between two or more animals;

(5) Performing any service or act to facilitate animal fighting or baiting, including, but not limited to, providing security, refereeing, or handling or transporting animals or being a stakeholder of any money wagered on animal fighting or baiting;

(6) Betting or wagering any money or other valuable consideration on the fighting or baiting of animals;

(7) Attending the fighting or baiting of animals.

(h) These provisions shall not apply to any person:

(1) Simulating a fight for the purpose of using the simulated fight as part of a motion picture that will be used on television or in a motion picture.

(2) Using animals to pursue or take wildlife or to participate in any hunting regulated or subject to being regulated by the rules and regulations of the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.

(3) Using animals to work livestock for agricultural purposes.

(4) Simulating bloodless bullfighting; or

(5) Using animals to hunt wild hogs or retrieve domestic hogs.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit, impede, or otherwise interfere with recognized animal husbandry and training techniques or practices not otherwise specifically prohibited by law.
