WHEREAS, the Town of Eatonville, Florida makes the following findings;

1. In recent years, many formerly private homes have been turned into residential rental units. Those rental units have oftentimes been rented to individuals who, because they have no ownership interest in the property have allowed the properties to deteriorate. In addition, problems have occurred because many tenants have no ownership interest in the real estate have not been concerned about following the Codes of the Town, including Codes which govern maintenance and safety of the property.
2. In many cases, the owners of the properties live long distance from the Town of Eatonville, Orange County, Florida. As a result, property maintenance of many rental units in the Town has been substandard.
3. The aforementioned findings have caused problems for other homeowners near the rental units.

WHEREAS, the Town Council of the Town of Eatonville finds that residential rental properties with the Town are not being properly maintained or managed, creating a potential nuisance for neighboring properties as well contributes to the Slum & blights conditions; and

WHEREAS, the Council finds that residential rental properties with the Town are not being properly maintained or managed, creating a potential nuisance for neighboring properties as well contributes to the Slum & blights conditions; and

WHEREAS, the Council finds that inadequately maintained and operated properties directly affect the surrounding neighborhoods and the Town as a whole, and that the regular collection and maintenance of accurate information about rental properties will aid in ensuring compliance with this Ordinance and the Code in general; and

WHEREAS, the Council, therefore, desires to establish a registration program to educate rental property owners, their managers and tenants, on compliance with various statutory and Code requirements relating to the short-term rental of residential property; and

WHEREAS, the intent of this Ordinance is to collect current and accurate information regarding rental properties and to encourage the appropriate management of those properties in order to protect the general health, safety and welfare of the residents and visitors to the Town of Eatonville.
