ADMINISTRATIVE

REQUEST: Request the reading of a proclamation recognizing National League of Cities Small Cities Month in the Town of Eatonville, Florida

SUMMARY: Town of Eatonville, the oldest incorporated African American Municipality in the United States serves as part of the small cities and towns under 50,000 population; the home to millions of Americans and constitute the vast majority of municipalities across the United States. Small cities and towns strive to strengthen their communities through the provision of services and programs to improve the quality of life for all citizens. The federal government is an essential partner in the success of small cities and towns and must be encouraged to continue to support programs and legislation that strengthen small communities; and state governments are partners in the success of small cities and towns, and must be encouraged to continue to support key programs and legislation that strengthen communities. Organizations, businesses, and citizens are partners in the success of small cities and towns, and must be encouraged to continue to grow their efforts to make small communities a viable choice for people to live in.

The National League of Cities President and the Small Cities Council of the National League of Cities have declared June 2022 as Small Cities Month.

RECOMMENDATION: Recommending the reading of a proclamation recognizing National League of Cities Small Cities Month in the Town of Eatonville, Florida.
