Department Highlights:

- The Edgewood Police Department participated in the National Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over campaign that ran through September 2, 2024. During this time, Officer Miguel Aponte made a DUI arrest.
- During the month of September, the Edgewood Police Department saw and uptick in phone call scamming. During this scam, the suspect spoofs the Edgewood Police Department phone number and claims the victim is wanted by the police. The subject convinces the victim to pay them, usually with gift cards, to clear their name.
- On September 12, the Edgewood Police Department celebrated National Police Woman Day.
- In September, the Edgewood Police Department said goodbye to the Dodge Durango as it was sold at auction.
- September 23 through September 27, the Edgewood Police Officers participated in Rail Safety Week. During this week, Officers spent time at railroad crossings ensuring traffic laws were being followed and educated drivers on the dangers of stopping on the railroad tracks.
- Trainings during September -
