This resident also doesn't have an issue and they directly across the street from me. They say they never know anything is going on, even when they see a vehicle in my driveway/garage. Signed affidavit was submitted for this resident.

This resident is the absolute closest proximity to me. As you can see, only a small space of grass separates our driveways. He states that he has no issue whatsoever and never hears any noise or anything. Signed affidavit was submitted for this resident.

Never Complained

Many complaints

This is the only resident that has any issues with what I am doing. You could argue that he is even the furthest away from where the work is performed. How can adjoining neighbors not have any complaints but, the furthest away does? The resident circled in orange has never complained. Only the one circled in red.
