Please share why you are interested in serving on this board?

A library is an asset to the community in many ways. I want to keep it that way.

We need to make sure it not only can serve the adults in the community but make it a great place for the children, too.

What are your areas of expertise you feel would be beneficial to this organization?

I am caring and passionate in all I do. I am organized and thorough. I work well with all groups as well as, people with various skill sets. I have a vested interest in the community and want to see it successful in all areas.
