1. Stay and Dismissal of Underlying Action.

1.1. The Parties agree to file a stipulation with the Court in the Underlying Action to stay the Underlying Action for 31 months from the date of execution of this Agreement.

1.2. At the earlier of (a) the conclusion of the stay in the Underlying Action granted by the Court following the efforts by the Parties described in Paragraph 1.5 below, or (b) the close of escrow pursuant to the PSA as amended by the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement, or (c) the termination of the PSA as amended by the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement, Touchstone shall file a dismissal with prejudice of its Complaint and City shall file a dismissal with prejudice of its Cross-Complaint. 2. This Agreement is contingent upon and is of no effect unless and until the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement is duly approved and executed.

While this Agreement is of no effect unless and until the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement is executed, the Parties agree that this Agreement will be signed by all Parties prior to any Party signing the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement.

3. Mutual Releases and Related Provisions.

3.1 City's Release. Excluding only the rights and obligations created by this Agreement and agreement identified in Paragraph 2 above, City, on behalf of itself, and to the fullest extent permitted by law fully and unconditionally releases, settles, and forever discharges Touchstone from all claims involved in or arising from or relating to the Dispute, which City now has or may have, or which City at any time in the future may have.

3.2. Touchstone's Release. Excluding only the rights and obligations created by this Agreement and agreements identified in Paragraph 2 above, Touchstone, on behalf of itself, and to the fullest extent permitted by law fully and unconditionally releases, settles, and forever discharges City from all claims involved in or arising from or relating to the Dispute, which Touchstone now has or may have, or which Touchstone at any time in the future may have.

3.3. Section 1542 Waiver. The Parties intend to release all claims arising from or relating to the Underlying Action that the releasing Parties may not know or suspect they have against the Parties being released under the releases in Paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 herein. In connection with those releases, the Parties waive all rights under California Civil Code section 1542 ("Section 1542"), which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

Each Party is aware that it may discover claims or facts in addition to or different from those now known or believed to be true with respect to any matter. Nevertheless, each Party expressly states its intention to fully, finally, and forever settle all claims arising from or relating to the Dispute that do now exist, may exist, or previously have existed.

The Parties further expressly waive all rights and benefits conferred upon them by any provision of any other law similar to Section 1542 and expressly agree that the releases set forth above shall be given full force and effect, according to the express terms and provisions of this Agreement, as to unknown and unsuspected claims arising from or relating to the Dispute.

4. Essential Terms. The Parties acknowledge that the provisions of Section 3 are essential and material terms of the Agreement, and that without such provisions, the Parties would not have entered into this Agreement.

5. General Provisions.

5.1 Cooperation and Further Assurances. The Parties agree to cooperate in good faith in carrying out their mutual intentions in this Agreement, including, without limitation, executing all further and additional documents as shall be reasonable, convenient, necessary, or desirable to carry out the intent and provisions of this Agreement.

5.2 No Admission. It is understood and agreed that this settlement is the compromise of disputed claims, and that the terms and conditions recited hereinabove are not to be construed as an admission of liability, or of the merit or lack of merit of any of the disputed claims, on the part of the Parties hereby released, and that said Parties intend merely to avoid litigation. The Parties further agree that this Agreement, inclusive of its exhibits incorporated herein, and all evidence of discussions, negotiations, and unexecuted drafts relating to this Agreement shall not be admissible as evidence in the Underlying Action or any matters relating to the Dispute, regardless of whether or not the same are or are not covered by California Evidence Code § 1152.

5.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, which incorporates the First Amendment to Purchase and Sale Agreement contains all representations and the entire understanding among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

5.4 Independent Counsel. Each Party hereby represents and warrants that it has been advised to consult with independent legal counsel of its own choosing and has had a reasonable opportunity to do so prior to executing this Agreement.

5.5 Joint Preparation. 5.6 Severability. If any term, covenant, condition, or provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall to any extent be held by a court of competent jurisdiction or rendered by the adoption of a statute by the State of California or the United States invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, covenants, conditions, or provisions of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated thereby.

5.7 Choice of Law and Venue. This Agreement is executed and intended to be performed in the State of California and the laws of California shall govern its interpretation and effect. The Parties agree that all legal proceedings regarding this Agreement shall only be instituted in the courts of the State of California for San Diego County, North County Division.

5.8 Waiver. The failure of any Party to enforce any term, covenant, or condition of this Agreement on the date it is to be performed shall not be construed as a waiver of that Party's right to enforce such term, covenant, or condition, or any other term, covenant, or condition of this Agreement. A waiver of any Party's right to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not be effective unless such a waiver is made expressly in writing. An express waiver of any one breach shall not be deemed a waiver of any other breach of the same or any other provision of this Agreement.

5.9 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. The Parties do not intend to create any third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

5.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and each counterpart when executed shall have the efficacy of a signed original. Delivery of an executed signature page of this Agreement by electronic means, including an attachment to an email, shall be effective as delivery of an executed original.

5.14 Introduction and Recitals. The introductory sections of this Agreement and the Recitals are hereby incorporated into the Agreement and made part thereof.

5.15 Attorney's Fees Arising out of Enforcement of Agreement. In the event any action or proceeding is brought to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to the reasonable fees, out-of-pocket expenses, and costs of attorneys and experts against the non-prevailing Party, in addition to all other relief to which that Party may be entitled. Absent such action or proceeding, each Party shall bear its own attorney's fees and costs in connection with the Underlying Action.
