

These are the warranties that we offer in J's and roofing and other trades. LLC

We offer a 5 year workmanship warranty covering all of our work for here at J's roofing and other trades LLC. We strongly believe in treating our customers like members of our own family and a big part of being a family is keeping promises. Our workmanship warranty is our promise to you that you'll be covered in the event of any installation error or workmanship errors and are many years of roofing experience it has given us a great deal of skill and confidence in our work. But with an investment as major as your roof, we understand that guarantees go along way toward building confidence. We believe that any mistake on our part are Responsibility to fix. With our five-year warranty workmanship warranty, your roof is fully protected in the event of any installation errors.

Things that can void our guarantee!

Any fixture that involves major roofing work, including penetration and TPO removal can void the guaranteed. This includes installing satellite dishes, but also skylights. Skylights look great but they also drill right into the roof making it substantial to leaks and other issues.
