EXHIBIT A

J.- PROPERTY RIGHTS ELEMENT

GOAL J.1: Ensure that private property rights are considered in the City's decision-making process.

Objective J.1: Private property rights. The City will consider the property rights set forth in the policies of this element when making land use and zoning decisions. This objective and the policies within this element do not create any property rights or due process rights that are not already judicially acknowledged and constitutionally protected. This objective and the policies within this element are not intended to alter the legislative nature of decisions made in the adoption of comprehensive plan amendments and land development code amendments. This objective and the policies within this element are not intended to require evidence, discussion, or findings of fact concerning the matters set forth herein. Ordinances adopted and land use and zoning decisions made by the City are presumed to have considered the matters set forth in this element.

Policy J.1.1 The right of a property owner to physically possess and control his or her interests in the property, including easements, leases, or mineral rights.

Policy J.1.2. The right of a property owner to use, maintain, develop, and improve his or her property for personal use or the use of any other person, subject to state law and local ordinances.

Policy J.1.3. The right of the property owner to privacy and to exclude others from the property to protect the owner's possessions and property.

Policy J.1.4 The right of a property owner to dispose of his or her property through sale or gift.
