City Attorney Steven Wang responded to questions from the City Council and provided clarification regarding appeal fees.

The public hearing was opened at 7:39 pm.

The following speakers spoke under this item:

1. Mike Reynolds
2. Loretta Hettinger
3. Vance Jarrard

Hearing no further requests to speak, the public hearing was closed at 7:46 pm.

Motion by Councilmember Kozlowski, second by Councilmember Leary to approve Resolution No. 11356, with the exception of the appeal fees; they would be kept static or develop a much more modest value.

Before the roll call vote, City Manager Bryan Whitemyer expressed support for adopting a modified fee structure that reflects some increases to help offset costs. He emphasized that while the City's primary role is to provide services—not to operate like a business—balancing competing interests is necessary. The intent of the fee adjustments is not to burden applicants, but to protect the General Fund and ensure continued high-quality service delivery to the community.

Mayor Aquino proposed an amendment to Councilmember Kozlowski's motion to set the appeal fee for both staff-level and commission decisions at $1,500. Councilmember Kozlowski declined to accept the amendment to his motion.

The City Council had further discussion and the Community Department Director Pam Johns responded to questions from the City Council. Community Development Planning Manager Desmond Parrington further clarified.

Mayor Aquino made a substitute motion since Councilmember Kozlowski rejected the amended motion.

Substitute motion by Mayor Aquino, second by Vice Mayor Raithel to approve Resolution No. 11356, with the appeal fee for both staff level and commission level decisions set at $1,500. Motion passed by the following roll-call vote:

CITY MANAGER REPORTS

City Manager Bryan Whitemyer recognized the outstanding efforts of City staff and partner agencies in successfully managing the recent large-scale event at Folsom Lake College with Senator Bernie Sanders and Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, which drew over 26,000 attendees. He noted that the event occurred without major incidents, highlighting the professionalism of Police, Fire, Public Works, and Communications teams. He also reminded the public that trail closures near Willow Creek Drive will begin April 30 as part of the City's ongoing water infrastructure improvement project. Construction will occur Monday through Saturday, with efforts made to minimize noise and dust per City and air quality standards. Additional community updates included the release of the Folsom Parks & Recreation Summer 2025 Activity Guide, the upcoming Earth Day event on April 26 at Prospector Park, Prescription Drug Take-Back Day on April 27, and the Folsom City Zoo Sanctuary's new summer hours beginning May 1. The City also welcomed a new zoo resident, Herbie the black bear.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilmember Kozlowski shared insights from a recent SACOG presentation on transportation planning, suggesting potential value in exploring Bus Rapid Transit in Folsom to enhance connectivity with the Gold Line and meet diverse transit needs beyond work commutes.

Councilmember Rohrbough echoed appreciation for staff efforts during the Folsom Lake College event and acknowledged concerns from impacted residents in her district. She emphasized the importance of applying lessons learned to improve future event planning. She also extended early Mother's Day wishes to the community.

Councilmember Leary expressed appreciation for participating in the City's Water Visioning Process, noting strong community engagement and a forthcoming plan to improve water infrastructure and reliability.

Vice Mayor Raithel had no comments.

Mayor Aquino announced adjustments to her weekly office hours due to upcoming travel with the Air District and to Washington D.C. for the Cap-to-Cap program, with Vice Mayor Raithel and Councilmember Leary filling in, respectively. She also noted that outreach to the City's top 25 sales tax producers is underway as outlined in her State of the City address. The Mayor concluded by thanking Council colleagues for a productive policy-focused meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the City Council, the meeting was adjourned at 8:49 pm.
