Background/History: Governor Brian Kemp proclaimed and recognized the week of June 10-14, 2024, as Municipal Court Clerks Week. This is a special time to celebrate and honor the invaluable contributions of municipal court clerks. This recognition highlights the importance of the work that each of us does everyday in serving our communities with dedication and professionalism. The court is an extension of public safety, and clerks work just as hard to help improve the safety and quality of life in the community.
