C) POUDE RIVER PUBLIC LIBRARY MURAL DONATION DESIGN REVIEW

Ms. Martin gave an overview of the project that she brought to the Board earlier that is ready for next steps. The Poudre River Library District has selected artist Carla Gamboa and held community meetings to develop the design concept that Ms. Martin shared with the group. The mural features imagery that represents the Latinx community and the heart they bring to the community. There were concerns from the board about the large open areas in the background. Ms. Martin shared that the background can be activated with textures and doesn't need to be filled with imagery. Ms. Chase asked about signage and if it will share the symbolism of the imagery. The donation was evaluated and received an average score of 25, 21 and over is accepted.

Ms. Chase moved that we accept the joint library project.

Ms. Bauer seconded

Unanimously approved
