RULES OF MEASUREMENT and DEFINITIONS

DIVISION 7.1 MEASUREMENT

7.1.1 GENERAL.

The rules of measurement set forth in 7.1.2 shall generally apply to this Code unless otherwise specified. For words, terms, and phrases words used in the Rules of Measurement that are not defined in Sections 7.1.2, or Division 7.2, the Director shall have the authority and power to interpret or define such words, terms and phrases. In making such interpretations or definitions, the Director may consult appropriate secondary sources.

7.1.2 RULES OF MEASUREMENT.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this Code, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

Block shall mean a unit of land bounded by streets or by a combination of streets and public lands, railroad rights-of-way, waterways or any barrier to the continuity of development, but shall not include in the calculation of the block size measurement the barriers creating the boundary.

Building frontage shall mean that side of a building that faces and is parallel to or most nearly parallel to a public or private street. The length of the frontage is determined by measuring along the outside walls of the building and including eaves that are at least eight (8) feet above grade and are an integral part of the roof or building wall. There can be only one (1) building frontage for each street upon which a building faces.

Build-to line shall mean the line on which the front of a building or structure must be located or built and which is measured as a distance from a public right-of-way street. To establish "build-to" lines, buildings shall be located and designed to align or approximately align with any previously established building/sidewalk relationships that are consistent with this standard. block patterns. Accordingly, at least thirty (30) percent of the total length of the building along the street shall be extended to the build-to line area. If a parcel, lot or tract has multiple streets, then the building shall be built to at least two (2) of the built to lines m according to (A) through (C) below, i.e. to a street corner. If there is a choice of two (2) or more corners, then the building shall be built to the corner that is projected to have the most pedestrian activity associated with the building.

- (A) Buildings shall be located no more than fifteen (15) feet from the right-of-way of an adjoining street if the street is smaller than a full arterial or has on-street parking.
- (B) Buildings shall be located at least ten (10) and no more than twenty-five (25) feet behind the street right-of-way of an adjoining street that is larger than a two-lane arterial that does not have on-street parking.
- (C) Exceptions to the build-to line standards shall be permitted:

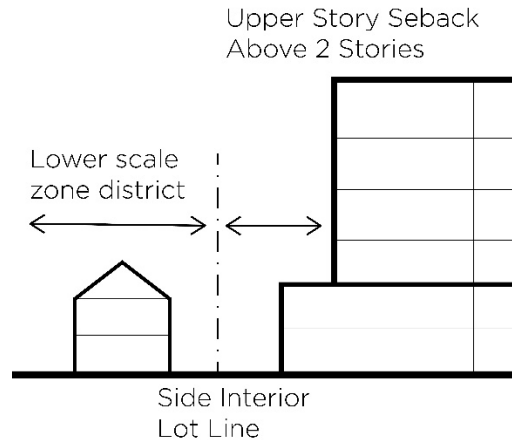

- (1) in order to form an outdoor space such as a plaza, courtyard, patio or garden between a building and the sidewalk. Such a larger front yard area shall have landscaping, low walls, fencing or railings, a tree canopy and/or other similar site improvements along the sidewalk designed for pedestrian interest, comfort and visual continuity.
- (2) if the building abuts a four-lane or six-lane arterial street, and the Director has determined that an alternative to the street sidewalk better serves the purpose of connecting commercial destinations due to one or more of the following constraints:
 - (a) high volume and/or speed of traffic on the abutting street(s),
 - (b) landform,
 - (c) an established pattern of existing buildings that makes a pedestrian-oriented streetfront infeasible. Such an alternative to the street sidewalk must include a connecting walkway(s) and may include internal walkways or other directly connecting outdoor spaces such as plazas, courtyards, squares or gardens.
- (3) in the case of Large Retail Establishments, Supermarkets or other anchor-tenant buildings that face internal connecting walkways with pedestrian frontage in a development that includes additional outlying buildings abutting the street(s).
- (4) if a larger or otherwise noncompliant front yard area is required by the City to continue an established drainage channel or access drive, or other easement.
- (5) in order to conform to an established pattern of building and street relationships, a contextual build-to line may fall at any point between the required build-to line and the build-to line that exists on a lot that abuts, and is oriented to, the same street as the subject lot. If the subject lot is a corner lot, the contextual build-to line may fall at any point between the required build-to line and the build-to line that exists on the lot that is abutting and oriented to the same street as the subject lot. A contextual build-to line shall not be construed as allowing a vehicular use area between the building and the street.

Bulk plane shall mean the imaginary plane that limits the allowable space a building may occupy. Dormer, eaves, chimneys and other architectural details are exempt from the bulk plane requirements. Bulk Plane requirements vary by zone district. Specific dimensions vary for lots with north facing walls along side-interior lot lines with an adjoining property.

Contextual build-to line shall mean a build-to line that falls at any point between the required build-to line and the build-to line that exists on a lot that abuts, and is oriented to, the same street as the subject lot, in order to conform to an established pattern of building and street relationships. A contextual build-to line shall not be construed as allowing a vehicular use area between the building and the street.

Contextual Height Setback. Properties adjacent to lower scaled residential zone districts shall comply with the Contextual Height Setback, which requires floors above the second story to be setback an additional 25' from the property line. This does not apply to detached homes, duplexes, or accessory structures.

Density shall mean the overall number of dwelling units located on the gross or net residential acreage (as applicable) contained within the development and calculated on a per-acre basis.

- (A) Calculation of the gross residential density shall be performed (and included on the development plan) in the following manner:
- (1) Determining the gross acreage. The gross acreage of all the land within the boundaries of the development shall be included in the density calculation except:
 - (a) any interest in land that has been deeded or dedicated to any governmental agency for public use prior to the date of approval of the development plan; provided, however, that this exception shall not apply to any such acquisition of an interest in land solely for open space, parkland or stormwater purposes; and
 - (b) land devoted to nonresidential uses such as commercial, office, industrial or civic uses.
 - (2) The foregoing gross acreage calculation shall be shown in a table format on the development plan and shall form the basis for calculating the gross residential density.
 - (3) The total number of dwelling units shall be divided by the gross residential acreage. The resulting gross residential density shall also be shown in a table format on the development plan.
- (B) Calculation of the net residential density shall be performed (and included on the development plan) in the following manner:
- (1) Determining the net residential acreage. The net residential acreage shall be calculated by subtracting the following from the gross acreage, as determined in subsection (A) above:

- (a) land to be dedicated for arterial streets;
- (b) land containing natural areas or features that are to be protected from development and disturbance in accordance with the requirements of LUC Section 5.6.1, "Natural Habitats and Features,";
- (c) land set aside from development due to a geologic hazard in accordance with the requirements of LUC Section 5.6.5, "Hazards,";
- (d) land containing outdoor spaces that are to be dedicated to the public or deeded to the homeowner's association and preserved for a park or central green, but only if the total area of land does not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the gross acreage of the project development plan and the outdoor space meets the following criteria:
 - (I) At least thirty-five (35) percent of the boundary of the outdoor space is formed by nonarterial, public streets, and the rear facades and rear yards of houses abut not more than two (2) sides or more than fifty (50) percent of the boundary frontage of the outdoor space.
 - (II) At a minimum, the outdoor space consists of maintained turf. In addition, such outdoor spaces may include features such as: buildings containing recreation or meeting rooms,, playgrounds,, plazas,, pavilions,, picnic tables,, benches,, orchards,, walkways or other similar features.
 - (III) The outdoor space is no less than ten thousand (10,000) square feet in area.
 - (IV) The outdoor space does not consist of a greenbelt or linear strip but has a minimum dimension of fifty (50) feet in all directions in any nonrectangular area, or seventy-five (75) feet in any rectangular area.
 - (V) The outdoor space is located and designed to allow direct, safe and convenient access to the residents of surrounding blocks.
 - (VI) Storm drainage functions that are integrated into outdoor spaces allow adequate space for active recreation purposes and do not result in slopes or gradients that conflict with active recreation. Stormwater retention areas (which have no outlet) shall not be allowed. No more than ten (10) percent of an outdoor space shall consist of gradients greater than four (4) percent.
- (e) land dedicated to public alleys.
- (f) land dedicated to pedestrian/bicycle path connections when required pursuant to subsection 5.9.1(C)(6) or subsection 5.3.2(E)(3) or when provided voluntarily by the applicant to connect cul-de-sacs to nearby streets, provided that such connections do not exceed two hundred fifty (250) feet in length.
- (g) land dedicated to landscaped traffic circles, squares, islands and boulevard strips separating the travel lanes of collector or local streets, provided that such features have the following minimum width dimensions:

- (I) boulevard strips: twenty-five (25) feet at any point; and
 - (II) traffic circles, squares, or islands: forty (40) feet at any point.
- (2) The foregoing net acreage calculation shall be shown in a table format on the development plan and shall form the basis for calculating the net residential density.
- (3) The total number of dwelling units shall be divided by the net residential acreage. The resulting density shall also be shown in a table format on the development plan.

Floor area shall mean the gross floor area of all buildings on the property, greater than 120sf or greater than 8ft in height, as measured along the outside walls of a building and shall be calculated to include each floor level.

Floor area shall be calculated as follows:

- (A) In all zone districts except in the Old Town zone district Floor area calculations shall not include open balconies, the first seven hundred twenty (720) square feet of the total of all sheds, garages or other enclosed automobile parking areas, basements and one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all storage and display areas for hard goods.
- (B) In the Old Town Zone district floor area shall be calculated to include the floor area of the following spaces and building elements.
- (1) One hundred (100) percent of the floor area of the following spaces and building elements:
- (a) The total floor area of all principal buildings as measured along the outside walls of such buildings; and
 - (b) each finished floor level at and above grade; and
 - (c) unfinished floor levels at and above grade excluding unfinished attic space; and
 - (d) basement floor areas where any exterior basement wall is exposed by more than three (3) feet above the existing grade at the interior side lot line adjacent to the wall; and
 - (e) roofed porches, balconies and breezeways that are enclosed on more than two (2) sides; and
 - (f) attached carports, garages and sheds; and
 - (g) Detached accessory buildings larger than one hundred and twenty (120) square feet, including the area of the upper story having a ceiling of height of seven and one-half ($7\frac{1}{2}$) feet. Detached accessory building floor area shall not be calculated into the allowed floor area of the primary building.
- (2) Two hundred (200) percent for the floor area of the following spaces and building elements:

- (a) High volume spaces on the first or second floor where the distance between the floor and the ceiling or roof rafters directly above is greater than fourteen (14) feet.

Floor Area Ratio (FAR) shall mean the amount of gross floor area of all principal buildings on a lot or block, as the case may be, divided by the total area of such lot, or the block size, respectively, on which such buildings are located. For mixed-use blocks, the residential square footage shall be added to the commercial development for a total block FAR.

Front Facade Design. At least one (1) front façade feature from the menu below shall be included to promote pedestrian orientation and compatibility with the character of the structures on the block face:

- (A) Limited 2-story facade. Two-story front-facade width is no more than 40', with any remaining two-story front facade setback an additional six (6) feet.

- (B) 1-story element. The portion of the facade closest to the street is one-story, with any two-story facade setback an additional six (6) feet from the street.

- (C) Covered entry. The portion of the facade closest to the street is one-story, with any two-story facade setback an additional six (6) feet from the street.

Half story. When the floor area of the top story is less than, or equal to half of the ground floor area.

Height shall mean the distance above a given level. Depending upon the context, height may be measured according to any of several methods, as follows:

- (A) Building Height Measured in Stories. In measuring the height of a building in stories the following measurement rules shall apply:
- (1) A balcony or mezzanine shall be counted as a full story when its floor area is in excess of one-third ($1/3$) of the total area of the nearest full floor directly below it.
 - (2) Half ($1/2$) story shall mean a space under a sloping roof that has the line of intersection of the roof and wall face not more than three (3) feet above the floor level, and in which space the possible floor area with head room of five (5) feet or less occupies at least forty (40) percent of the total floor area of the story directly beneath.

- (3) No story of a commercial or industrial building shall have more than twenty-five (25) feet from average ground level at the center of all walls to the eave/wall intersection or wall plate height if there is no eave, or from floor to floor, or from floor to eave/wall intersection or wall plate height as applicable.
- (4) A maximum vertical height of twelve (12) feet eight (8) inches shall be permitted for each residential story measured from average ground level at the center of all walls to the eave/wall intersection or wall plate height if there is no eave, or from floor to floor, or from floor to eave/wall intersection or wall plate height as applicable. This maximum vertical height shall apply only in the following zone districts: U-E; R-F; R-L; L-M-N; M-M-N; OT-A; OT-B; OT-C; R-C; C-C-N; N-C; H-C; and M-H.
- (B) Building Height Measured in Feet. When measured in feet, building height shall be measured from the average of the finished ground level at the center of all walls of a building or structure to the highest point of the roof surface or structure.

- (C) Transitional Height. Regardless of the maximum building height limit imposed by the zone district standards of this Land Use Code, applicants shall be allowed to use a "transitional" height limit. The allowed "transitional" height may fall at or below the midpoint between the zone district maximum height limit and the height, in feet, of a building that exists on a lot that abuts the subject lot and faces the same street as the building on the subject lot. This provision shall not be interpreted as requiring greater minimum heights or lower maximum heights than imposed by the underlying zone district.

Integrate with existing structure shall mean using the existing structure to achieve a new use and/or using the existing structure to achieve an increase in the number of dwelling units at an existing use. In order to meet the definition of integrate existing structure, the following requirements must be met:

- (A) Exterior walls must remain and cannot be demolished except for the following:
- (1) New windows, doors, or entry features may be added and only the area of the new features may be removed from the existing wall;
 - (2) 0% of front walls, 25% of side walls, and 100% of rear walls may be removed; and
 - (3) Exterior finishes may be maintained or replaced without increasing the footprint.
- (B) In conjunction with the demolition exceptions in (A), additions to existing structure may occur. Additions shall be subordinate to the existing structure by satisfying all of the following requirements:

- (1) The addition must be the same height as the existing structure or lower;
- (2) The addition must be placed to the rear of the existing structure;
- (3) The addition must be designed to be compatible with defining features including but not limited to materials, finishes, windows, doors, entries, porches, decks, and balconies of the existing structure; and
- (4) The addition may not increase the footprint of the existing structure by more than 50%.

(C) Any allowed demolition or additions shall be identified in the building permit submittal.

Lot shall mean a designated parcel, tract or area of land established by plat, subdivision or otherwise permitted by law to be used, occupied or designed to be occupied by one (1) or more buildings, structures or uses, that abuts a dedicated right-of-way, private street or private drive, any of which is at least twenty (20) feet wide at all points.

Lot area shall mean the amount of horizontal (plan view) land area within lot lines. (See also Section 5.7.4)

Lot line, front shall mean the property line dividing a lot from a street. On a corner lot only one (1) street line shall be considered as a front line, and the street to which the primary entrance of the principal building faces or to which the building is addressed, shall be considered the front line.

Lot line, rear shall mean the line opposite the front lot line.

Lot line, side shall mean any lot lines other than front lot line or rear lot line.

Lot width shall mean the horizontal (plan view) distance between the side lot lines as measured along a straight line parallel to the front lot line or the chord thereof. The minimum lot width shall be measured between the side lot lines along a line that is parallel to the front lot line and located at the minimum front setback distance from the front lot line. In the case of cul-de-sac lots, the minimum lot width may be measured between the side lot lines along a line that is parallel to the front lot line and located at the actual front building line.

Measuring distances between uses. When a distance is required between uses, the distance shall be measured in a straight line from the closest point on the boundary line of one (1) property to the closest point on the boundary line of the other property.

Minimum frontage or minimum building frontage shall mean a measurement equal to a fraction, the denominator of which is the sum of the length of all perimeter streets bounding the block, and the numerator of which is the sum of the length (as measured within twenty [20] feet of the perimeter street right-of-way) of all buildings that have windows and entries oriented to the street, plus twenty (20) percent of the length (as measured within thirty [30] feet of the perimeter street right-of-way) of any plazas or pedestrian accessible landscaped areas within the block. In no case shall parking lots or blank rear or side walls be included in the minimum frontage calculation.

Mounting height (MH) shall mean the vertical distance between the finish grade and the center of the apparent light source of the luminaire.

Secondary roof shall mean a flat roof structure that is at least 10 feet lower than another roof structure on the same building.

Setback shall mean the required unoccupied open space between the nearest projection of a structure and the property line of the lot on which the structure is located, except as modified by the standards of this Code. Required setbacks shall be unobstructed from the ground to the sky except as specified in Section 5.13.2.

Side Facade Design. Side facade design can be accomplished by offsetting the floor plan, recessing or projection of design elements, change in materials and/or change in contrasting colors. Projections shall fall within setback requirements.

- (A) Wall Offset. Two-story facade width at minimum is no more than forty (40) feet, with any remaining two-story facade setback an additional six (6) feet beyond the minimum required side yard.
