one?

What experiences do you have interacting with those with disabilities?

as a man who is legally blind. I have a lifetime of experience in working with people that are visually impaired and blind.

What concerns do you have or have seen in our community that needs to be addressed impacting those with disabilities? And, how would you advocate for those with disabilities?

I recently worked with the bus system, and they helped me make many changes. I still believe there are more changes that need to be made and signage and in audibly announced crosswalks. I am sure there are others, but this is the things I have seen so far.

Why do you want to become a member of this particular board or commission?

As a man with a disability and understanding what it's like to live in a real life situation. I want to be able to help others who may not have a voice or want to speak up about the challenges that they're disability presents for them in the city.

Specify any activities which might create a serious conflict of interest if you are appointed:

I do not believe I have any.

Have you ever been the subject of a code of conduct or ethics complaint? If yes, please explain.
