

CITY OF FRANKLIN, OHIO

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Franklin City Council wishes to express our appreciation to Amy Miller and honor her for her distinguished career with the City of Franklin and dedicated service to the residents of Franklin that spans over 32 years; and

WHEREAS, Amy began her career in the City of Franklin on August 13, 1990 as a Utility Clerk, was promoted to Chief Utility Clerk in 1996 and then Secretary to the Finance Director in 1997. She served as interim Finance Director in 2017 and 2018. Amy retired in 2021 and returned to serve as interim Finance Director in May of 2022; and

WHEREAS, Amy has led the Finance Department through many challenges, changes and developments always looking for ways to improve processes for internal efficiencies as well as citizen services; and

WHEREAS, over 32 years of employment, Amy's fiscal responsibility and work ethic serve as an exceptional example for all City employees; and

WHEREAS, the Franklin City Council, staff, and the residents of this great community are deeply appreciative of Amy and her selfless service to the City of Franklin;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Brent Centers, on behalf of the Franklin City Council and staff recognize and commend Mrs. Amy Miller for your loyalty to the City of Franklin and wish her much happiness in her well-deserved retirement, and do hereby proclaim Monday, July 24, 2023 as: Amy Miller Day in the City of Franklin.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of December in the year 2022.

---

Mayor Brent W. Centers