AGENDA TEXT: PROCLAMATION POLICY DISCUSSION

BACKGROUND

The Fruita City Council adopted Resolution 2020-44 establishing a policy on the issuance of Proclamations on November 17, 2020. A copy of the policy is attached. The policy states that proclamations that have historically been issued on an annual basis will NOT be automatically renewed and that requests must be made on an annual basis. The purpose of this discussion is to decide whether or not to amend this policy to provide for automatic renewal of certain proclamations.

The following is a list of historical proclamations that have been issued in multiple years:

MONTH	PROCLAMATION
January	Crime Stoppers Month
April	Child Abuse Prevention Month
April	Month of the Young Child
April	Arbor Day
May	Days of Remembrance (Jewish Holocaust)
May	National Police Week/Peace Officers' Memorial Day
May	Teacher Appreciation Week
May	Armed Forces Day and/or Memorial Day
May	Public Lands Day
May	Public Works Week
June	Adult Protection Awareness Month
June	Bike Month/Bike to Work Day
July	Parks and Recreation Month
August	Interfaith Awareness Week
November	Veterans' Day
