- QUASI-JUDICIAL – Quasi-judicial public hearings are held when the City Council is acting in a judicial or judge like manner and a person with a legitimate interest is entitled to an impartial decision made on the basis of information presented and laws in effect. Quasi-judicial hearings are commonly held for land use hearings and liquor license hearings. Since the City Council is acting in a fair and impartial manner, it is NOT permissible for City Council members to have any ex-parte communication (contact between the applicant, members of the public, or among other members of the City Council) outside of the Public Hearings and meetings on the subject application. The City Council must limit its consideration to matters which are placed into evidence and are part of the public record. Quasi-judicial hearings are held in the following manner:
  - 1) Staff presentation Staff will present the comments and reports received from review agencies and offer a recommendation.
  - 2) Applicant Presentation The petitioner is asked to present the proposal. Presentations should be brief and to the point and cover all of the main points of the project.
  - 3) Public Input (limit of 3 minutes per person) Speakers must step up to the microphone and state their name and address. Speakers should be to the point and try not to repeat the points others have made.
  - 4) The public hearing is closed to public comments.
  - 5) Questions from the Council. After a Council member is recognized by the Mayor, they may ask questions of the staff, the applicant, or the public.
  - 6) Make a motion. A member of the City Council will make a motion on the issue.
  - 7) Discussion on the motion. The City Council may discuss the motion.
  - 8) Vote. The City Council will then vote on the motion.
