FROM: CITY CLERK DEB WOODS FOR MAYOR BREMAN AND COUNCILOR MILLER

DATE: JUNE 3, 2025

AGENDA TEXT: BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS REAPPOINTMENT – A request to approve the reappointment of John Rodwick to the Livability Commission for another three-year term that will expire in June of 2028

BACKGROUND

The membership guidelines of the Livability Commission call for a minimum of seven and a maximum of twenty-one members. There are currently twelve members on the board, so there is the potential for nine (9) vacancies on the board. Staff has advertised these vacancies on the City's website and Facebook page for over two years and will continue to do so.

John Rodwick's term on the Livability Commission expires in June of 2025 and on May 19, 2025, Mr. Rodwick submitted his application for reappointment to the Livability Commission. Staff reached out to Mayor Breman and Council Liaison to the board Amy Miller to ask if they would like to reappoint John for another term. Councilor Miller and Mayor Breman stated that they are in full support of the reappointment. City staff has not received any other applications for appointment to the Livability Commission.

If John Rodwick is reappointed to the Livability Commission, there will be nine vacancies remaining on the board.

Pursuant to the Boards and Commissions Policy that was adopted by the City Council with the adoption of Resolution 2020-32 on August 4, 2020, if John Rodwick is reappointed, he will be limited to this last consecutive three-year term on the Livability Commission.
