Architecture, Historic Preservation, Downtown Revitalization, Placemaking.

Additional information or references you believe may be helpful in considering your application.

I'm the current Board Chair and the board would like for me to continue in that role. I have been fostering the board to develop more community connections/partnerships and that recently allowed the board to reprint the Historic Fruita coloring book and Downtown Walking Tour brochure. We are currently working on redesigning and implementing a more robust historic plaque program.
