5. Treasurer's Report:
 - (a) Monthly Report- T. Cleveland prepared budget documents listing expenses and income to date, with 17% of the budget available at the end of November.
 - T. Cleveland answered Trustee questions on expenses and line items.
 - The Trustees were in agreement that any money left in the budget towards the end of the year will be spent on e-books from Overdrive.
 - There was discussion on spending $3,000 for chairs for the new Teen space. The library trustees were not consulted nor was approval requested prior to the purchase, given it was over $1,000 and not a regular expense.
 - (b) Grant Update-
 - The Building Bright Futures Grant has ended. The baby yoga classes, baby massage classes, pediatric dentist visit, staff retention development and library visits were completed by the December 15, 2025 deadline.
 - (c) 2026 Budget- The Town of Georgia has level funded the GPL for FY26. Discussion was had on putting a new budget together for 2026. T. Cleveland will reach out to the Town Treasurer to ask if $3,000 in impact fees can be used towards books in 2026.
 - (d) Bond Update. No updates from the engineer. The potential bond may be presented to the community in the August or November 2026 election.
6. Library Director's Report:
 - (a) Personnel- A part-time staff member has resigned and will be missed. Her hours have been reallocated to existing staff.

(b) Facilities- There are still problems with the cleaning staff not fully cleaning the library. The end units that were purchased arrived to the library and thanks go out to Suzanna Brown, Ben Ebert and Tom Cleveland for putting the units together.

(c) Programs-

- A Teen Advisory Board has been assembled; they met to discuss the future teen space.

Secretary K. Caspers left the meeting at 5:30pm.

7. Old Business

(a) Memorandum of Understanding – The Trustees went through the Draft MOU to provide edits and suggestions to the Town.

(b) What Does a Library Trustee Do?–

(c) Personnel Issue – At the last meeting K. Caspers asked what class the Library paid for M. Grange to take while receiving her hourly wage. B. Stone explained she is taking a marketing and Facebook class.
