Pleasant, Michigan, party of the second part, hereinafter called the “Union.”

PURPOSE AND INTENT

The general purpose of this Agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations for the mutual interest of the Employer, the employees, and the Union.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION, UNION SHOP AND DUES

SECTION 1. The Employer recognizes and acknowledges that the Union is the exclusive representative in collective bargaining with the Employer of those classifications of employees covered by this Agreement and listed in Schedule “A”, under, Electrical Department.

Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of Act 336 of the Public Acts of 1947, (known as the Hutchinson Act), as amended, the Employer does hereby recognize the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment for the term of this Agreement of all Full-Time employees of the Employer included in the bargaining units as described and set forth in Schedule “A”.

Michigan’s PA 349 of 2012 has invalidated the provisions set forth below at Article 1, Section 2, A. The clauses set forth below regarding Union Security and other matters rendered illegal by PA 349 of 2012 shall not be deemed contractually required only so long as PA 349 of 2012 remains the law of the State of Michigan.

SECTION 2. SEASONAL EMPLOYEES: It is understood and agreed that the Employer employs a number of seasonal employees from time to time to work on a temporary basis. The parties agree that these seasonal employees shall not be covered by the terms of this Agreement and shall not be obligated to pay Union dues or fees during the time of their employment by the Employer. To be considered seasonal employees, the said employees must work no more than eight hundred (800) hours for the City during any one calendar year. This Section shall in no way have the effect of displacing regular employees, nor shall seasonal help be employed when regular employees are on layoff.

A. New Full-Time employees shall be considered probationary employees for a period of not less than six (6) months from their date of Full-Time employment. Such an employee may be terminated at any time during the trial period by the City without the right of appeal or hearing.

SECTION 3. If any provision of this Article is invalid under Federal Law or the laws of the State of Michigan, such provision shall be renegotiated to comply with the requirements of Federal or State Law or shall be renegotiated for the purpose of adequate replacement.

SECTION 4. During the period of time covered by this Agreement, the Employer agrees to deduct from the pay of any employee, all dues and/or initiation fees of Union No. 876, and pay such amount deducted to said Union Local No. 876, provided, however, that the Union presents to the Employer authorizations signed by such employee, allowing such deductions and payment to the Local Union, which shall have been furnished to the Employer and not revoked in accordance with the terms of the applicable authorization furnished to the Employer or in accordance with federal labor law on the subject.

- A. The Union shall indemnify the Employer and Co-Employers and hold it harmless against any and all suits, claims, demands and liabilities that shall arise out of or by reason of any action that shall be taken by the Employer and Co-Employers for the purpose of complying with the foregoing provisions of this Article, or in reliance on any list notice or assignment which shall have been furnished to the Employer and Co-Employers under any such provisions.
- B. However, notwithstanding PA 349 of 2012, the Employer will continue to deduct Union dues and forward them to the Union from each employee as they have done in the past, if and so long as it has valid, written wage deduction instructions from each such employee, unless and until they are revoked or modified.

Both the journeymen (who train the apprentices) and the superintendent must feel comfortable with the apprentice's experience and present line-worker capabilities

SCHEDULE “B”

INTRODUCTION: In compliance with the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the City of Gladstone (City) will provide eligible employees up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid family/medical leave within a twelve (12) month period. The FMLA allows “eligible” employees to take job-protected, unpaid leave or paid leave if the employee has earned or accrued it, for up to a total of twelve (12) workweeks in any twelve (12) months because of the birth of a child and to care for the newborn child, because of the placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care, because the employee is needed to care for a family member (child, spouse, or parent) with a serious health condition, or because the employee’s own serious health condition makes the employee unable to perform the functions of his or her job. The FMLA also allows an employee to take leave due to that employee’s family members being called to active military duty or being injured in the course of active duty. In certain cases, this leave may be taken on an intermittent basis rather than all at once, or the employee may work a part-time schedule.

To be eligible for coverage under the FMLA, an employee must have worked for the City for at least one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours during the preceding twelve (12) month period, which averages out to a little less than twenty-five (25) hours a week. The FMLA does not cover many part-time employees because employees who work less than this amount of hours for the City are not entitled to leave under the FMLA.

A “serious health condition” is a condition or illness affecting one’s health to the extent that in-patient care is needed, or that absences are necessary on a recurring basis or for more than a few days for treatment or recovery. If in-patient care is not needed, an absence from work or school for more than three (3) days must occur along with the continuous treatment of a health care provider. However, a visit to a health care provider is not necessary for such absence where any leave is required because of any of the following: (1) pregnancy or prenatal care; (2) a chronic serious health condition which continues over an extended period of time, requires periodic visits to a health care provider, and may involve occasional episodes of incapacity; or (3) a permanent or long-term condition (such as Alzheimer’s, stroke, terminal cancer) for which treatment may not be effective, where only supervision and not active treatment is required.

GENERAL LEAVE PROVISIONS: Eligible employees are entitled to a total of twelve (12) work weeks of leave during the twelve (12) month period measured backward from the date an employee uses FMLA leave, when leave is taken for one (1) or more of the following circumstances:

- (1) Due to the birth of a son or daughter of the employee, if the leave is taken within twelve (12) months of the birth,
- (2) Due to the adoption or foster care placement of the child of the employee, if the leave is taken within twelve (12) months of the placement,
- (3) To care for the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of the employee if such spouse, son, daughter or parent has a serious health condition,
- (4) Due to a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of his or her position.

FAMILY MEDICAL AND MILITARY LEAVE POLICY

MILITARY FAMILY LEAVE PROVISIONS: Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent in the National Guard or Reserves on active duty or called to active duty in support of a contingency operation may take up to twelve (12) weeks of FMLA leave for certain “qualifying exigencies.” A “qualifying exigency” includes: (1) the service member being called to short-notice deployment (seven (7) days or less; (2) military events and related activities; (3) child care and related activities; (4) financial and legal arrangements; (5) counseling; (6) rest and recuperation; (7) post-deployment activities; (8) any other event the employee and employer agree is a qualifying exigency.

In addition, eligible employees are entitled to up to twenty-six (26) weeks of leave to care for a parent, child spouse, or next of kin who is a member of the Armed Forces and has suffered an injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active military duty that may render the member medically unfit to perform the duties of the member’s office, grade, rank, or rating. This type of leave is available in a single twelve (12) month period. If an employee has taken FMLA due to one of the qualifying events listed above, the total combined amount of FMLA leave may not exceed twenty-six (26) weeks.

Any FMLA leave taken will be counted against the employee’s annual FMLA leave entitlement.

DEFINITIONS: A “Child” does not have to be a biological child. A “parent” does not need to be a biological parent as long as the person stood “in loco parentis” (in the place of the parent) to the employee when the employee was a “son” or “daughter.” FMLA leave may be taken to care for adopted children, foster children, legal wards, or a niece, nephew or grandchild whom the employee is actively raising. A “son or daughter” includes a child 18 years or over who is “incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.” An individual with a disability is a person who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

The City is not required by the FMLA to grant leave for any other relatives or individuals in the employee’s household. For FMLA purposes, a “spouse” is defined in accordance with applicable state law and may include common-law spouses in states where common-law marriages are recognized. Unmarried domestic partners generally do not qualify as spouses under the FMLA.

BOTH SPOUSES WORKING FOR THE CITY: When both spouses work for the City the total leave in any twelve (12) month period for both spouses will be limited to twelve (12) weeks if the leave is taken for the birth or adoption of a child or to care for a sick parent.

EMPLOYEE NOTICE REQUIREMENT: Employees are required in the case of foreseeable events (expected birth or placement of a child or planned medical treatment) to provide thirty (30) days’ notice to the City Manager or his or her nominee. However, if the need for a leave was not foreseeable and must begin in less than thirty (30) days, the notice shall be provided as soon as practicable. “As soon as practicable” means as soon as both possible and practical, taking into account all of the facts and circumstances in the individual case. The ordinarily would mean at least verbal notification to the City within one (1) or two (2) business days of when the need for leave becomes known to the employee.

CERTIFICATIONS AND REPORTING: A certification issued by a health care provider is required to support an employee's request for leave due to a serious health condition. Certification of Health Care Provider forms are available from the City Manager or his or her nominee.

The City may require the employee to obtain the opinion of a second health care provider designated and paid for by the City. In the event of a conflict between the first and second opinions, the City may, again at its own expense, obtain a third opinion from a health care provider approved jointly by the City and the Employee. This third opinion will be final and binding.

Employees who take leave for their own serious health condition or to care for a covered family member will be required to report to the City on a regular basis. A reporting schedule will be worked out with the City Manager or his or her nominee.

Employees are expected to provide the City with notice as soon as possible (within two (2) business days if practicable) if the dates of leave change or are extended.

Failure to comply with these requirements may result in a delay in the start of FMLA leave.

The City may also require that an employee present a certification of fitness to return to work when the absence was caused by the employee's serious health condition. The City may delay restoring the employee to employment if such certificate relating to the health condition which caused the employee's absence is not provided.

KEY EMPLOYEES: The FMLA provides a significant exemption for "key employees." The City is not required to offer key employees reinstatements to a similar position following the end of their leave. Key employees are those salaried employees who are among the highest paid ten percent (10%) of the employees paid by the City within seventy-five (75) miles of the facility at which the employee is employed and must be the highest paid ten percent (10%) of all salaried and non salaried, eligible and ineligible employees. Year-to-date earnings as of the date leave is requested are used to determine who are the highest paid.

An eligible key employee may be denied reinstatement of employment after leave has been taken if:

- (1) Such denial is necessary to avoid substantial and grievous economic injury to the operations of the City,
- (2) The City notified the key employee of its intent to deny restoration on such basis when the City determined that such injury would occur, and
- (3) If the leave has commenced, the employee elects not to return to employment after receiving such notice.

The employee will be notified by the City of his status as a key employee upon requesting leave if a chance exists that the City may deny reinstatement after the leave.

An employee may also be regarded as a key employee if the employee is the most highly compensated employee at a facility even if the employee is not among the highest paid ten percent (10%) of the employees in the City. If the employee is among the highest paid ten percent (10%) of employees at a remote facility, the employee could be denied reinstatement of employment and benefits even if the employee's salary fell within the middle range of overall employee salaries.

INTERMITTENT OR REDUCED SCHEDULED LEAVE: Under certain circumstances, when leave is taken for a serious health condition, it may be taken intermittently (in small blocks of time such as days or hours) or on a reduced work schedule if medically necessary. When such leave is unpaid, the City will make salary deductions based on the amount of time actually worked. Employees who are on an intermittent or reduced schedule leave may be temporarily transferred to an available alternative position to better accommodate the leave requirements.

Employees seeking intermittent or reduced schedule leave based on planned medical treatment will be required to produce a medical certification outlining the dates on which treatment is expected and the duration of the treatment.

PAID LEAVE: All employees taking FMLA leave will first be required to use all accrued and unused paid sick leave and vacation time. Unpaid leave will then commence for the period remaining.

BENEFITS DURING FMLA LEAVE: Employees on FMLA leave are entitled to have health benefits maintained while on leave as if they had continued working. If the health plan or benefits are changed by the City while the employee is on FMLA leave, the employee is entitled to the changed benefits to the same extent as if he or she were not on leave. Employees will be provided with any notices of changes in benefits and accorded any options to change coverage that would be provided if the individual were not on leave.

Except as required by COBRA, the City's obligation to maintain health benefits during leave (and to restore the employee to the same or equivalent employment) under FMLA ceases if and when:

- (1) The employment relationship would have terminated if the employee had not taken FMLA leave;
- (2) An employee informs the City of his or her intent not to return from leave (including before starting the leave if the City is so informed before the leave starts); or
- (3) The employee fails to return from leave or continues on leave after exhausting his or her FMLA leave entitlement in the twelve (12) month period.

If a "key employee" does not return from leave when notified by the City that substantial or grievous economic injury will result from his or her reinstatement, the employee's entitlement to group health plan benefits continues unless and until the employee advises the City that the employee does not desire restoration to employment at the end of the leave period, or FMLA leave entitlement is exhausted, or reinstatement is actually denied. The key employee may then have rights under COBRA.

If employees were required to pay a portion of the health coverage cost, this requirement will continue during FMLA leave. The City will provide the employee with advance written notice of the terms and conditions under which these payments must be made.

Usually when the employee on leave does not return to work and the reason is not due to serious health reasons recognized under FMLA and is not due to circumstances beyond the employee's control, the City is entitled to recover from the employee any City paid costs with respect to the entire leave period. In addition, the City may elect to maintain other benefits for the employee, such as life or disability insurance, for which the employee would normally pay the premiums and the City will also be entitled to recover the cost of these premiums, based on the same criteria as recovery of the employee's share (paid by the City) of medical premiums.

While the taking of FMLA leave does not result in the loss of any employment benefits accrued prior to the date on which the leave commences, the FMLA does not require that an employee be allowed to accrue any additional benefits while on family or medical leave. These benefits include pensions, sick leave, disability benefits, annual leave, group life insurance, and paid vacation time.

RETURN TO WORK AND REINSTATEMENT: Employees generally have rights to return to the same position or an equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits, and working conditions at the end of the FMLA leave.

It is the City's desire to have employees return to work as soon as possible within their medical restrictions. The City may have available some temporary light duty assignments to enable employees to return to full duty. Employees interested in performing temporary light duty assignments when medically able to do so should contact the Administration Office. An employee's refusal to accept light duty does not affect FMLA leave rights.

Employees who return to work but who may still have a medical problem will be reasonably accommodated to enable them to do their original job. Such accommodations must be practicable, medically necessary, and not an undue hardship upon the City. Employees who cannot be accommodated to perform their original position if it is available will be placed in a vacant position for which they are qualified if such position is available. Such reassignments may be at the current rate of pay for the employee or at a lower rate of pay if an equivalent position for which the employee is qualified is not available. Employees should meet with the Administration Office to discuss possible accommodations. An employee's refusal to accept an accommodation does not affect the employee's FMLA leave entitlement.

Employees on FMLA leave may still be eligible for short-term or long-term disability insurance or worker's compensation benefits. An employee's decision regarding FMLA leave can affect these benefits.

ANTI-RETALIATION: No employee shall be retaliated against for exercising his or her FMLA rights. Any employee who feels he or she has been in any way discriminated or retaliated against should report that to the Commission and/or City Manager for investigation and appropriate action.
