AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF GLEN ROSE, TEXAS, RATIFYING THE ADOPTION OF ORDINANCE 17.03.13A “HISTORIC LANDMARK PRESERVATION ORDINANCE” (HLPO); RECODIFYING THE HLPO AS ARTICLE 14.03 OF THE CITY’S CODE OF ORDINANCES; AMENDING PORTIONS OF THE HLPO; PROVIDING FOR REPEALING, SEVERABILITY AND PROPER NOTICE, MEETING, AND QUORUM CLAUSES; AND, ESTABLISHING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City of Glen Rose, Texas (City) is a Type A general-law municipality located in Somervell County, created in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6 of the Texas Local Government Code (TLGC) and operating pursuant to the enabling legislation of the State of Texas;

WHEREAS, pursuant to §51.001 of the TLGC, “The governing body of a municipality may adopt, publish, amend, or repeal an ordinance, rule, or police regulation that: (1) is for the good government, peace, or order of the municipality or for the trade and commerce of the municipality; and (2) is necessary or proper for carrying out a power granted by law to the municipality or to an office or department of the municipality”;

WHEREAS, on April 12, 1994 pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 211 of the TLGC, the City Council adopted Ordinance 256-H creating “a district of historical significance” called the “Glen Rose Historic District”;

WHEREAS, on June 13, 2000, Ordinance 256-H was amended, but the boundaries of the Historic District remained the same;

WHEREAS, on July 12, 2004, Ordinance 256-H was again amended, but the boundaries of the Historic District remained the same;

WHEREAS, the minutes of the May 11, 2009 City Council Meeting indicated the City Council voted to expand the “Historic Preservation District,” but the new boundaries were not described in the minutes or any document directly associated with that meeting;

WHEREAS, on July 11, 2011 the City Council voted to adopt the Historic District Ordinance (with changes); however, no copy of a signed Ordinance bearing that date has been found;

WHEREAS, an unsigned and undated copy of “The City of Glen Rose Preservation District Ordinance” paralleling a model ordinance provided by the State of Texas was found, but the Ordinance provided no description of the Historic District boundaries;

WHEREAS, on August 16, 2016, the Historic Preservation Commission conducted a public hearing on and subsequently voted to approve a Historic Preservation Ordinance and District Map;

WHEREAS, among the document associated with the August 16, 2016 meeting, was a map depicting an area larger than what was described in the 1004, 2000, and 2004 ordinances (presumably the District as expanded at the May 11, 2009 City Council Meeting), a notice documenting public hearings about a “new Historic Preservation Landmark Ordinance” before both the Historic Preservation Commission and the Planning and Zoning Commission and advertising a January 9, 2017 public hearing before the City Council, and a list of properties to which it appears the notice was sent;

WHEREAS, on January 9, 2017, the City Council discussed the proposed, new “Historic Landmark Preservation Ordinance,” but no officially designated “public hearing” was conducted and the Council took no action;

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2017 pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 211 of the TLGC the City Council repealed and revoked prior preservation ordinances and adopted a new “Historic Landmark Preservation Ordinance” (Ordinance 17.03.13A);

WHEREAS, also on March 13, 2017, the City Council adopted Ordinance #17.03.13B rolling back the boundaries of the City’s Historic District (AKA Preservation District) to the original boundaries identified in Ordinance 256-H adopted on April 12, 1994 and renaming the District as the “Historic Preservation Overlay District”;

WHEREAS, since the City Council failed to conduct a public hearing prior to adopting the Historic Land Preservation Ordinance (Ordinance 17.03.13A), it has been determined that said action should be considered at a public hearing and, then, ratified:

WHEREAS, the Historic Landmark Preservation Ordinance was codified as Article 3.16 Historic Landmark Preservation of Chapter 3: Building Regulations of the City's Code of Ordinances;

WHEREAS, since authorization for designating “places and areas of historical, cultural, or architectural importance and significance” is found in Chapter 211 “Municipal Zoning Authority” of the TLGC, it has been recommended that Article 3.16 Historic Landmark Preservation of the City’s Code of Ordinances be recodified as Article 14.03 of Chapter 14: Zoning of the City's Code of Ordinances;

WHEREAS, amendments to the City’s Historic Preservation have been proposed to: (1) allow either a staff member or a volunteer to serve as the Historic Preservation Officer, (2) authorize the Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) to vote on making a recommendation to the City Council for filling vacancies when terms expire, (3) remove the 3 consecutive term limitation for HPC members, and (4) to charge the HPC with oversight of the Farmer's Market.

WHEREAS, both the Historic Preservation Commission and the Planning and Zoning Commission have conducted public hearings and have made recommendations to the City Council regarding said ratification, recodification, and amendments;

WHEREAS, the City has provided notification and conducted the public hearing required under Chapter 212 of the TLGC concerning ratification and recodification and amendments to the Historic Landmark Preservation Ordinance 17.03.13A; and,

WHEREAS, for the good government, peace, and order of the municipality and to carry out the powers granted to the City under Chapter 212 of the TLGC, the City Council has decided to amend Chapter 14 “Zoning” of the City’s Code of Ordinances.
