

August 17, 2021

TO: City of Glen Rose
FM: Scott Gipson, President Glen Rose Wine and Art Festival 2021
RE: Proposed concepts for the 2021 Wine Festival

The proposed 2021 Glen Rose Wine and Art Festival will take place on October 1st and 2nd on the Square in downtown Glen Rose with the VIP Wine Pairing Dinner to take place at Barnard's Mill on Thursday September 30th.

- Street closing requested
  - Walnut Street between Barnard Street and Vine
  - Vernon Street between Pecan and Elm
  - Elm Street between Barnard and Vine
- Potential street closing for a Back Yard Chef's BBQ Contest (TBD)*
  - Walnut St between Barnard and Grace Streets
  - Local merchant/s have been consulted
- Consulting with the Somervell County Tourism Director, the decision to limit ticket sales at 3,000. 2,500 advanced tickets and 500 day off tickets
- * There is a proposed BBQ Cook-off event to be held on Walnut street which will be limited to about 20 teams. Brookshires has donated $500 to be used for food purchases. This event is still in the planning stages.
- Charities supported. (80% of the net revenues divided between the following)
  - Somerville County Cancer Support Society
  - Papa's Pantry
  - Paluxy River Children's Advocacy Center
- City and County Law Enforcement and Emergency officials have been notified.
- No food tracks will be placed in front of City or County facilities.
- Plan for festival cleanup is in place

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott Gipson", with a horizontal line underneath.